

High School Musical

Watanabe Sarasa has always dreamed of being an otokoyaku, an actress who plays male roles in an all-female theater troupe.

Narata Ai also has a dream: the disgraced former idol wants to live in a world full of women and not have to deal with men at all. When they both get into a competitive all-girls theater school, the stage is set for Ai and Sarasa to enter the limelight and take their first step toward stardom.

The Curtain Rises Rethinking Culture Ideology And The State In Eastern:

The Curtain Rises Hermine G. De Soto, David George Anderson, 1993-01-01 Examines the dynamics underlying recent upheavals in Russia and Eastern Europe. The contributors integrate anthropological observation of Eastern European societies in transition with fresh interpretations of social theory drawn from Marxist feminist and postmodern traditions.

The Kalamari Union: Middle Class in East and West Markku Kivinen, 2019-05-23 First published in 1998 this volume asks are new social classes in the making in eastern Europe. Are class issues withering away? How do different classes organize their lives what kind of strategies do they adopt in East and West? Markku Kivinen brings Eastern Europe into the class debate. Recent sociological discussions have touched upon questions of class in Eastern Europe only very provisionally. On the other hand old analyses of social stratification under conditions of actually existed socialism are no longer relevant in the current situation. This book analyses processes of class relations in Eastern Europe from new theoretical vantage points using up to date empirical data. Under socialism power was said to be vested in the working class. However there was a constant tension between the holy proletariat and the real life of the working class. Today all political forces in Eastern Europe leftist and liberal alike are hankering for the middle class. This book explores the real processes in both East and West. This leads to more concrete political and even moral issues. The new sacred middle class is challenged. The contributors adopt several conceptual approaches and perspectives which enter into a fruitful exchange in this book.

Postsocialism Maruška Svašek, 2008-01-01 In many parts of post socialist Europe the tumultuous political and economic developments have generated strong emotions ranging from hope and euphoria to disappointment envy disillusionment sorrow loneliness and hatred. Yet these aspects have been largely neglected in analyses of the profound transformations that have taken place in Central and Eastern Europe since 1990. Based on a wide variety of ethnographic case studies focusing on Russian, Siberian, Romanian, Bulgarian, Slovenian, Croatian, Czech and Polish communities this volume proves the significance of emotions to post socialist political processes as an inherent part of the transformations and sheds new light on the impact of local, national and transnational political forces that have given rise to the resurgence of nationalist sentiments increasing poverty and marginalization conflicts arising from the restitution of state property constitutional changes and economic deprivation.

Politics and Public Policy Barbara Wejnert, 2012-12-17 This volume highlights the ways in which scholarly analysis has contributed to a rich understanding of the links between spreading democracy gender equality and environmental protection. It includes cutting edge debates on the meaning of democracy and its development as well as the response of democracies to environmental and gender concerns.

East European Communities David A. Kideckel, 2019-03-07 This book focuses on communities in the east European transition and the diverse issues which people face in them on a daily basis. It is organized around three themes economic change and privatization the transformation of social and political organization and changing community belief system.
