Race, Education and Educational Leadership in England Paul Miller,Christine Callender,2019-04-18

In recent years the issue of race in education in the UK have been submerged in wider discourses of diversity leading to an invisibility of the quotidian experiences of marginalised peoples in educational institutions Race Education and Educational Leadership in England looks at how the experiences of black and ethnic minority BME students and academics in education has changed and investigates how the implementation of current policies on race equality are being monitored by the government The contributors take an integrated approach looking at issues and themes that occur across all educational phases in England and draw on expertise from within and outside the education system The editors highlight areas of weakness and good practice in access curriculum progression and the lived experience This book makes a compelling argument for why race equality matters in England s education system

Affect and the Making of the Schoolgirl Melissa Wolfe,2021-09-20 By exploring the material discursive production of gender norms in Australian secondary schools this book offers a novel feminist posthuman new materialist perspective on how schoolgirls are pre determined within educational space and place The text ultimately illustrates how gender and race inequity is reproduced through presumptive thinking and a failure to recognize student potential Affect and the Making of the Schoolgirl maps affective accounts of students everyday experiences in school spaces Student negotiations with prescriptive processes of subject participation and subject selection are explored to illustrate how inequities are systematically reproduced Chapters also offer an examination of STEM subject fields as entitled male space Engaging theoretically with concepts from performative feminist new materialism and affect theory the text highlights filmic semblances created as part of an onto epistemological project and calls for alternative educational encounters which affirmatively acknowledge difference and promote non binary thinking This text will benefit postgraduate researchers academics and scholars with an interest in gender and sexuality education teacher education STEM education gender inequality intersectionality and the sociology of education Those interested in gender studies affect theory and feminist theory as well as educational policy and politics more broadly will also benefit from this book
