Social Movements An Anthropological Reader:

Social Movements June Nash, 2004-11-30 Social Movements An Anthropological Reader expands on standard studies of social movements by offering a collection of writings that is exclusively anthropological in nature and global in its focus thereby serving as an invaluable tool for instructors and students alike Based on fieldwork carried out on four continents North America South America Africa and Asia and in 14 countries Includes articles that address problems ranging from global health and the spread of diseases loss of control over basic resources such as water and fuel militarization to the repression of indigenous peoples and of women Offers solutions formulated by local peoples The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology Simon Coleman, Susan B. Hyatt, Ann Kingsolver, 2016-11-25 The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology is an invaluable guide and major reference source for students and scholars alike introducing its readers to key contemporary perspectives and approaches within the field Written by an experienced international team of contributors with an interdisciplinary range of essays this collection provides a powerful overview of the transformations currently affecting anthropology The volume both addresses the concerns of the discipline and comments on its construction through texts classroom interactions engagements with various publics and changing relations with other academic subjects Persuasively demonstrating that a number of key contemporary issues can be usefully analyzed through an anthropological lens the contributors cover important topics such as globalization law and politics collaborative archaeology economics religion citizenship and community health and the environment The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology is a fascinating examination of this lively and constantly evolving discipline Handbook of Social Movements Across Disciplines Bert Klandermans, Conny Roggeband, 2009-12-18 This book aims to revisit the interdisciplinary roots of social movement studies Each discipline raises its own questions and approaches the subject from a different angle or perspective The chapters of this handbook are written by internationally renowned scholars representing the various disciplines involved They each review the approach their sector has developed and discuss their disciplines contributions and insights to the knowledge of social movements Furthermore each chapter addresses the unanswered questions and discusses the overlaps with other fields as well as reviewing the interdisciplinary advances so far How Social Movements Imagine Bobby Luthra Sinha, 2024-08-30 This book examines how micro contextual issues inspire collective social action forms against everyday situations of crises and crimes through an inter disciplinary ethnographic and comparative research conducted among Bishnois and Indian South Africans Exploring the role of the publics that practise and mobilise their social movement imaginations the work delves into peoples ability to move beyond their immediate contexts and politicise multiple social spaces and discursive spheres around them to project their causes Mapping an anti poaching movement spearheaded by the Bishnois of Western Rajasthan in India and an anti substance abuse movement led by the historical Indian diaspora of South Africa the author argues that such contemporary forms of organised social action replete with alternative frames symbols and repertoires possess key requisites to be understood as the Newer Social Movements of the Global South The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of social and protest movements migration and diaspora studies political science social anthropology and ethnography

Women in the Kurdish Movement Handan Çağlayan,2019-10-21 This book offers the first historical account of Kurdish women s politicization in Turkey starting from the mid 1980s a layan presents a critical feminist analysis through women s everyday experiences incorporating women s self narrations with her own autoethnographic reflections The author provides an account of the socio political dynamics which constrained women s politicization of the factors and mechanisms which enabled their political activism and of the construction of women s political history through their own narrations Women in the Kurdish Movement is a highly original contribution to Kurdish women s political history It will be key reading for students and scholars across various disciplines with an interest in gender political participation everyday resistance feminist methodology nationalism ethnicity secularism social movements post colonial studies and the Middle East

Cultural Transformations and Globalization Alexander M Ervin,2016-01-08 Change is the most significant factor of contemporary society and humanity s past This book represents the first substantial attempt since the 1970s to synthesize and critique sociocultural change theories in anthropology and relate them to trends in the social and physical sciences It emphasizes the most recent contributions especially complexity and emergence theory social movements network analysis and globalization Ervin presents a rich legacy of theories and case studies accessible to both the established scholar and the beginning student He considers how theories and insights can inform policy as humanity faces crises of globalization Key Features of the Text Designed for scholars and students seeking a comprehensive analysis of the relation between anthropological theory and practice Assesses big questions facing the social sciences Do cultures and societies change or is it really individuals families and social networks Are there prime movers of change environment technology economics ideas powerful leaders or cultural contacts Are there structures embedded within changes and changes built into structures Original contribution of the book is the integration of sociological and anthropological theories including networks social movements complexity world systems etc Online appendices include resources for students on applied and practice anthropology

Human Rights Mark Goodale,2008-10-20 This innovative reader brings together key works that demonstrate the important and unique contributions anthropologists have made to the understanding and practice of human rights over the last 60 years Draws on a range of intellectual and methodological approaches to reveal both the ambiguities and potential of the postwar human rights project Brings together essays by both contemporary luminaries and seminal figures to provide a rich introduction to the subject Supplemented with selected international human rights documents and links to websites on human rights

Making a Killing Alicia Gaspar de Alba,Georgina Guzmán,2010-11-01 Since 1993 more than five hundred women and girls have been murdered in Ciudad Ju rez across the border from El Paso Texas At least a third have been sexually violated and mutilated as well Thousands more have been reported missing and remain unaccounted for The crimes have been poorly investigated and have gone unpunished and unresolved by Mexican authorities thus creating an epidemic of misogynist violence on an increasingly globalized U S Mexico border This book the first anthology to focus exclusively on the Ju rez femicides as the crimes have come to be known compiles several different scholarly interventions from diverse perspectives including feminism Marxism critical race theory semiotics and textual analysis Editor Alicia Gaspar de Alba shapes a multidisciplinary analytical framework for considering the interconnections between gender violence and the U S Mexico border The essays examine the social and cultural conditions that have led to the heinous victimization of women on the border from globalization free trade agreements exploitative maquiladora working conditions and border politics to the sexist attitudes that pervade the social discourse about the victims The book also explores the evolving social movement that has been created by NGOs mothers organizing efforts and other grassroots forms of activism related to the crimes Contributors include U S and Mexican scholars and activists as well as personal testimonies of two mothers of femicide victims Precarity Activism Maribel

Casas-Cortés,2024-07-31 Activist networks throughout Europe developed the concept of precarity at the turn of the 21st century Retail chain employees freelancers cultural workers caregivers and university adjuncts alike including those labeled natives or migrants identified and organized themselves under the umbrella notion of precarity This ethnography tells the story of precarity activism as it originated and evolved in Southern Europe tracing its theoretical and linguistic legacy Highlighting the currency of precarity inspired proposals for social change this empirically detailed appraisal recapitulates activist debates over the prospects of flexible labor markets entangled with questions of gender and citizenship The book s analysis offers insight into how precarity activism s visionary notions of sustainable futures speak directly to the tensions of the platform economy This genealogy of a grassroots political concept will be of use for postgraduate students and scholars interested in anthropology cultural studies geography sociology and political theory It will appeal to interdisciplinary fields engaging processes of collective action knowledge production and the so called subaltern populations such as social movements studies gender studies critical race and migration studies disability studies and labor studies This book will further attract those concerned with changes in production reproduction and mobility under platform capitalism as it further consolidates precarity as the new normal The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Latin American Social Movements Hank Johnston,Paul Almeida,2006-08-11 The two current trends of democratization and deepening economic liberalization have made Latin American countries a ground for massive defensive mobilization campaigns and have created new sites of popular struggle In this edited volume on Latin American social movements original chapters are combined with peer reviewed articles from the well regarded journal Mobilization Each section represents a major theme in Latin American social movement research Original chapters discuss the Madres de Plaza de Mayo movement in Argentina and the Zapatista movement in Chiapas Mexico Also included in the book s coverage of the region s major movements are los piqueteros and antisweatshop labor organizing This is the first study to focus closely on the related issues of neoliberal globalization democratization and the workings of transnational advocacy networks in Latin America Urban Anthropology and Studies of Cultural Systems and World Economic Development ,2008 Transnational Agrarian Movements Confronting Globalization Saturnino M. Borras, Jr.,Marc Edelman,Cristóbal Kay,2008-11-10 Readers of this book will encounter peasants and farmers who struggle at home and traverse national borders to challenge the World Trade Organization and other powerful global institutions Here are activists in Brazil who uproot plots of genetically modified soybeans forest dwellers in Indonesia who chop down rubber plantations to cultivate rice to feed their families runaway villages in China that take up arms to resist corrupt officials and Mexican migrants who having exited in desperation return from abroad to transform their communities Little known transnational agrarian movements of the early twentieth century share the stage with more recent high profile global alliances such as V a Campesina Rather than simply celebrating a dynamic sector of international civil society the authors tackle thorny questions of successes and failures ethical and political dilemmas troubled alliances with NGOs protest repertoires and representation claims The essays in Transnational Agrarian Movements Confronting Globalization analyze contemporary collective action in all its complexity acknowledging ambiguities and contradictions posing challenging questions and providing concrete strategies for scholars and activists Contributors include Suraya Afiff Xochitl Bada Brenda Baletti Saturnino M Borras Jr Marc Edelman Jonathan Fox Harriet Friedmann Tamara M Johnson Crist bal Kay Kevin Malseed Philip McMichael Amber McNair Peter Newell Nancy Lee Peluso Noer Fauzi Rachman Ian Scoones Kathy Le Mons Walker and Wendy Welford The Will of the Many Marianne Maeckelbergh,2009-10-15 Lively account of how people power has shaped British history from Peterloo to the Poll tax and beyond Indian Tribes and the Mainstream Sukant Kumar Chaudhury,Soumendra Mohan Patnaik,2008 Contributed articles presented at the National Seminar on Tribes and the Mainstream of Indian Society and Culture at Lucknow in 1994 'When Women Unite!' Marie-Louise Larsson,2006 American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Making Sense of the Global Raúl Acosta,Sadaf Rizvi,Ana Santos,2010 Anthropology is more relevant than ever before to making sense of the constant intercultural encounters taking place around the world Even though the discipline was born out of the need to understand the way humans interact it had for decades been trapped in a counter cultural stance that effectively disarmed it of any direct influence on public affairs Recent global trends however have brought this academic discipline to the attention of governments agencies and social entrepreneurs because of its capacity to create bridges of understanding between people of contrasting cultures This ability is today more necessary than ever before in facing the challenges posed by the shrinking of our world This volume provides reflections on what anthropological research can offer through its oethick analyses We are convinced that ethnographic research can contribute to a better understanding of social phenomena in our global times

Spectra of Anthropological Progress, 1984 Art and Activism in the Age of Globalization Lieven de Cauter, Ruben De Roo, Karel Vanhaesebrouck, 2011 Art and activism in the age of globalization takes the measure of contemporary activist art Is it a relevant practice or a pseudo activity in the margins of its politics proper What is the position of art and activism in the post Fordian society of the spectacle The book makes space for a critique of engagement as pose but also for the present era s urgencies Besides case studies by established figures such as Steven Cohen and Christoph Schlingensief young pubs like Renzo Martens and Les Chiens de Navarre are also given a platform There are also investigations into urban activism and the activism of anonymous networks and there is special consideration for the effect of the War on terror on activist practice
