Pedagogies for Future-Oriented Adult Learners Helen Bound,Jennifer Pei-Ling Tan,Rebekah Lim Wei Ying,2022-03-16 This book presents a collection of chapters both empirical and conceptual that challenge existing paradigms of learning and teaching provides examples of pedagogical spaces and practices that nurture future oriented learners explicates identities and transitions in learning and offers alternative frames for moving forward Educational structures have proven remarkably resilient More often than not pedagogical designs still privilege the lecture tutorial format front end loading and the positioning of the teacher as expert In a similar vein pedagogical spaces tend to privilege the formal educational institution and its discourses rather than productively engage with naturally occurring learning spaces at work and in communities To better prepare and support learners for dynamically changing futures we need to truly flip the lens from teaching to learning positioning at the core the learner in contexts where learning and becoming occurs This means considering what counts as a future oriented learner and educator recognising the importance of evolving identities transitions and pathways that facilitates the processes of being and becoming Equally important is the design and appropriation of pedagogical spaces and practices that are in themselves dynamic and future oriented This book questions the current delineation between the spaces of work learning and communities Supporting Adult Learning Great Britain. addition to new case studies from a wider range of settings than ever before the new edition offers broader national and international coverage greater emphasis on work based learning and more ideas for exploring classroom communication and meeting a wider range of learner needs Readings for Reflective Teaching in Further Adult and Vocational Education directly compliments this book providing access to key texts working as a compact and portable library reflectiveteaching co uk provides a treasure trove of additional support including supplementary sector specific material for considering questions around society s educational aims

Being an Adult Learner in Austere Times Ellen Boeren, Nalita James, 2018-12-17

This book examines the experiences of adult learners in times of austerity. The power of adult education to transform lives is well known and it is especially powerful for those who missed out on educational opportunities earlier in life. Those who have been successful learners in the past are more likely to continue their education and training making extra support and funding ever more important. However in the current economic and political climate support for adult learning is significantly decreasing. This book sheds light on the experiences of adult learners despite the difficulties facing the sector interweaving empirical discussions with theoretical debates. The editors and contributors demonstrate the challenges and struggles of adult learners in higher further and community education. This enlightening edited collection will be of interest to all those involved in adult education as well as policy makers and funders.
