Teaching Strategies For Constructivist And Developmental Counselor Education:

Teaching Strategies for Constructivist and Developmental Counselor Education Garrett McAuliffe, Karen Eriksen, 2001-12-30 An urgent need exists for a guide to innovative mental health education. Despite the hundreds of programs in existence for training students in counseling, human services, social work, and psychology, teachers in such programs have relied on an informal network of information exchange to guide their teaching practice. Yet constructivist and developmental theories now point to sound innovative practices for teaching. This volume delineates some of those practices. The authors take the position that despite years of research on effective adult education, university teaching fails in practice to incorporate research-supported teaching principles. Current university instruction is still dominated by the teacher as authority model in which he or she downloads information from the front of the class and expects students to regurgitate it in papers and on exams. This book seeks to counter the limitations of these often unquestioned methods. The social constructionist and constructive developmental paradigms undergird the descriptions of counselor preparation strategies offered in this book. Such strategies are characterized by the themes of meaning making, collaboration, equality, and activity in the learning environment.

Teaching Strategies for Constructivist and Developmental Counselor Education Garrett McAuliffe, Karen Eriksen, 2002. Annotation: Presents intentional learner-centered teaching strategies and reviews general teaching principles, outlining what is known about good teaching from over one hundred years of research. Skill Development in Counselor Education Joy S. Whitman, Laura R. Haddock, 2018-09-05. Skill Development in Counselor Education provides counselor educators in training with a variety of materials and suggestions to assist in building fundamental skills. Templates, activities, and quizzes guide educators in developing their identities and teaching philosophies, developing engaging curricula, teaching cultural and technological competence, and dealing with complex ethical issues in the classroom. The book also covers a variety of practical topics related to seeking a faculty position or navigating an academic appointment, including writing a CV and cover letter, preparing for interviews, and navigating the tenure process.

Handbook of Counselor Preparation Garrett McAuliffe, Karen Eriksen, 2011. This definitive single-volume guide is the first of its kind on teaching and developing counselor educator programs that embrace constructivist and developmental theory. Leading scholars and experts offer practical advice on teaching courses in every area of counseling practice. As a result, the book is ideal for current and future counselor educators and supervisors as well as faculty in other helping professions. The authors seek to inspire educators to empower and involve, to risk losing control over subject matter to hear student voices, to pose dilemmas, and to challenge their own assumptions in the presence of their students using constructivist, developmental, and experiential thinking and strategies.

Teaching Counselors and Therapists Karen Eriksen, Garrett McAuliffe, 2001-08-30. A guide to innovative mental health education is urgently needed.
