The Construction Of A Political Community Integration And Identity In Goa:

The Construction of a Political Community Arthur G Rubinoff, 1998-09-22 Throughout the world multi ethnic states are under stress from separatist movements Using the state of Goa as a case study for the application of integration theory this book shows how India has so far succeeded in remaining intact by promoting national identity The author describes the construction of a Goan political community and the transformation of its identity in the postcolonial era One of the few recent treatments of state politics in India his book is the first to discuss Goa s ability to develop in a democratic context and highlights the unique nature of the Indian path of integration

Sociology and Social Anthropology in India Yogesh Atal, 2009 The Indian Council of Social Science Research the premier organization for social science research in India conducts periodic surveys in the major disciplines of the social sciences to assess disciplinary developments as well as to identify gaps in research in these disciplines

South Asia and its Others Atreyee Phukan, V.G. Julie Rajan, 2020-10-27 The essays in South Asia and Its Others Reading the Exotic reveal fresh perspectives on the notion of exoticism in South Asia and also challenge and extend existing scholarship in the broader discourse of what constitutes South Asia Significantly the anthology considers how the phenomenon of exoticization may be interpreted as a strategic methodology utilized by writers of South Asian descent to examine critically both the post colonialist ramifications of casteism religious intolerance and gender violence across differing cultural contexts within the region and how current perceptions of native and diasporic South Asian subjects problematize ideologies of authenticity across Western Eastern divides The papers in this collection show how authors of South Asian ethnicity construct their own version of an exotic South Asia globally and the colonialist discourse of exocitism is employed as a discursive tool that uncovers the ambiguity that continues to mark the marginality of identities even today

The relic state Pamila Gupta, 2016-05-16 This book is a study of the complex nature of colonial and missionary power in Portuguese India Written as a historical ethnography it explores the evolving shape of a series of Catholic festivals that took place throughout the duration of Portuguese colonial rule in Goa 1510 1961 and for which the centrepiece was the incorrupt corpse of S o Francisco Xavier 1506 52 a Spanish Basque Jesuit missionary turned saint Using distinct genres of source materials produced over the long duree of Portuguese colonialism the book documents the historical and visual transformation of Xavier s corporeal ritualisation in death through six events staged at critical junctures between 1554 and 1961 Xavier s very mutability as a religious political and cultural symbol in Portuguese India will also suggest his continuing role as a symbol of Goa s shared past for both Catholics and Hindus and in shaping Goa s culturally distinct representation within the larger Indian nation state

Tourism Imaginaries at the Disciplinary Crossroads Maria Gravari-Barbas, Nelson Graburn, 2016-06-23 Providing a unique analysis of current multidisciplinary research on the complex relationships between tourism and the imaginaries of tourist destinations this book traces the links between tourism imaginaries and their religious heaven and political utopia antecedents The substantive chapters are organised into three main thematic sections the first explores the touristic production and consumption of place imaginaries the second analyses the way places are practiced through imaginaries and the role imaginaries play in the tourist experience and the final section explores the way images and the media participate in the creation of tourism imaginaries
