James Granville Adderley

The Big House:

The Big House George Howe Colt, 2012-08-07 Faced with the sale of the century old family summer house on Cape Cod where he had spent forty two summers George Howe Colt recounts returning for one last stay with his wife and children in this stunning memoir that was a National Book Award Finalist and a New York Times Notable Book of the Year This poignant tribute to the eleven bedroom jumble of gables bays and dormers that watched over weddings divorces deaths anniversaries birthdays breakdowns and love affairs for five generations interweaves Colt's final visit with memories of a lifetime of summers Run down yet romantic The Big House stands not only as a cherished reminder of summer's ephemeral pleasures but also as a powerful symbol of a vanishing way of life

Technology and the Big House in Ireland, C. 1800-c. 1930

Charles John Thomas Carson, 2009 By the beginning of the nineteenth century over ninety five percent of all the productive land in Ireland was in the hands of Anglo Irish landowners They lived in the big houses some of which still exist today resplendent within their walled estates Many others are now only gaunt ruins silhouetted against somber Irish skies victims of the troubles in the 1920s There is a continuing fascination with the history of the big house in Ireland Much of this interest stems from the Anglo Irish living in places apart in their estates often in remote areas of an undeveloped and hostile land Part of the appeal is in the characters neither wholly English nor Irish who made up this landowning class in Ireland However another part largely ignored until this study is how many of these landowners not only met these challenges but achieved remarkable levels of self sufficiency It was their exploitation of technology that hugely bolstered their status and independence and enabled them to lead an exotic lifestyle in Ireland Although much has been written regarding the social and political history of the Anglo Irish in Ireland little research has been conducted into the practical problems of living there At a time when there were few roads no railways and sailing ships were the unreliable connection with England existence might have been very basic indeed Charles Carson uncovers and explains in simple terms the technologies employed to not only make life bearable but in some case to become a triumph over seemingly impossible odds An appreciation of this background helps to explain the sense of status and independence that emanates from the big house in Ireland until their demise in the late twentieth century Interdisciplinary investigative methods were used in this work These included extensive archival research of estate papers throughout Ireland fieldwork involving examination and photography of still extant big house technology and the use of published fictional and biographical big house material Much additional insight and suggestions for further research resulted from visits to various big house locations Owners often descendants of the original families or managers and ground staff provided important local knowledge Climbing amongst stored artefacts in cellars barns and subterranean tunnels helped to bring the past alive Something of the ambiance of these explorations informs this book thus helping towards an understanding of the fundamental importance of technology in underpinning the status and independence of the big house in Ireland By examining the range costs and changing nature of the technologies employed this book makes an important contribution to a deeper understanding of life in the big house in Ireland circa 1800 to circa 1930 Brief descriptions accompanied by drawings or photographs are employed to explain the operation limitations and improvements of many of the installations and techniques These include water closets pumps cisterns boilers and firefighting equipment open fires hot air stoves and central heating walled gardens hot walls and beds warm air steam and hot water heating of glasshouses the construction location stocking and use of ice houses and ice daylight enhancement candle oil gas and electric lighting an optical telegraph a church spire engine driven equipment on the estate farm as well as mapping of bogs and their reclamation by wooden railways Technology and the Big House in Ireland c 1800 c 1930 is an important reference source for Irish study groups worldwide In Front of The Big House Bobby L Dennis, Ser Seshab Heter -C.-M. Boxley, 2025-05-05 Step Into the Shadows Where Power and History Collide In Front of The Big House You Cannot Erase History takes readers on a profound journey into the heart of monumental institutions those imposing structures that silently govern our lives and narratives This compelling exploration reveals the layers of meaning behind the facades of power shedding light on the stories often left untold From the grandeur of architecture to the voices echoing from its steps the book unpacks how these iconic Big Houses embody more than just stone and mortar Discover the intersection of justice race and gender as personal accounts breathe life into the imposing walls confronting the legacies of colonialism and social divides that linger within these spaces Each chapter unravels a new dimension from the socio political implications of public protest to the subtle ways power is maintained through surveillance and control In Front of The Big House doesn't simply recount history it challenges readers to reconsider the narratives that have been constructed and who benefits from them Through riveting case studies comparative global perspectives and deeply human stories it pushes the conversation beyond the physical buildings and into the emotional landscapes shaped by fear hope and resistance Whether you are drawn to architecture social justice or the untold stories of those who stand before these monumental institutions this book offers an eye opening perspective that insists history's imprint cannot be erased It calls for reflection understanding and a reimagining of the spaces that define authority in our world The Big House Carolyn Coman, 2016-11-04 When their parents are sent up the river for embezzlement Ray and Ivy are left to live in the lap of luxury with Marietta Noland and her ancient husband Lionel But life at the big house is not all it's cracked up to be First there is the shrouded portrait then there is the spider in the decaying wedding cake And what about the vicious instrument Marietta uses to decapitate her egg When the rain in Spain begins to fall in other words Ray wets his bed things go from bad to worse and Ivy knows it is time to take matters into her own hands What follows is a hilarious lark as Ray and Ivy case the joint get the skinny and show Marietta she has met her match The Small House Over the Water Mark Lemon, 1888 The Book of the Thousand Nights and a Night Leonard Charles Smithers, 1894 Life and Public Services of Hon.
