O. Trevelyan,2015-07-13 Excerpt from The Competition Wallah Those who read these letters with attention cannot fail to perceive that my most earnest desire and most cherished ambition is to induce Englishmen at home to take a lively and effective interest in the native population of their Eastern dominions and with that view to lay before them a plain statement of the feeling which is entertained towards the population by the European settlers in India This is a task which cannot be undertaken by an anonymous writer On a matter so momentous evidence will not be received from a witness whose character and antecedents are unknown On all the great questions which now agitate Anglo Indian society the civilians and the settlers are at odds so that men naturally reject the testimony of an author whom the larger half of his readers and reviewers believe to be a civilian About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Competition Wallah. \(Second Edition, Reprinted.\).
