The Conspiract Quartet:

The Conspiracy Quartet David Clewell, Peter Genovese, 1997 Support in Times of No Support Wolfgang Frindte, Ina Frindte, 2023-01-01 In the summer of 2018 the authors of the book stood in the Musée des Arts et Métiers in Paris They marvelled at the Foucault pendulum which made its circular movements on a long rope under the dome Like Casaubon in Umberto Eco's book The Foucault Pendulum the authors were amazed and wondered what could be at the ideal end of the thread pendulum The fixed point that could give us support and security in an uncertain world and difficult times What uncertainties what times or even what threats are we actually talking about Where can we find the fixed points the safe spaces of our lives This book deals with these and other questions The authors found inspiration for the book in Umberto Eco And so it is also a homage to Eco Alexandrian Cosmopolitanism Hala Halim, 2013-09-19 Interrogating how Alexandria became enshrined as the exemplary cosmopolitan space in the Middle East this book mounts a radical critique of Eurocentric conceptions of cosmopolitanism The dominant account of Alexandrian cosmopolitanism elevates things European in the city's culture and simultaneously places things Egyptian under the sign of decline The book goes beyond this civilization barbarism binary to trace other modes of intercultural solidarity Halim presents a comparative study of literary representations addressing poetry fiction guidebooks and operettas among other genres She reappraises three writers C P Cavafy E M Forster and Lawrence Durrell whom she maintains have been cast as the canon of Alexandria Attending to issues of genre gender ethnicity and class she refutes the view that these writers' representations are largely congruent and uncovers a variety of positions ranging from Orientalist to anti colonial The book then turns to Bernard de Zogheb a virtually unpublished writer and elicits his Camp parodies of elite Levantine mores in operettas one of which centers on Cavafy Drawing on Arabic critical and historical texts as well as contemporary writers and filmmakers' engagement with the canonical triumvirate Halim orchestrates an Egyptian dialogue with the European representations Mountolive Lawrence Durrell, 2020-06-30 Lose yourself in the thrilling political intrigue and tangled love affairs of wartime Egypt in Durrell's epic modern classic A master at creating and handling tension I was fascinated from the start Wilbur Smith David Mountolive a young English diplomat has been obsessed with Egypt ever since a youthful love affair Returning to Alexandria as British Ambassador just before World War Two he unravels an intricate political and religious conspiracy one that connects a web of wildly different characters including an exiled schoolteacher and glamorous Egyptian couple Mountolive gradually exposes the sinister underbelly of these tangled relationships their deceptions and betrayals mirroring the explosive turmoil of the modern Middle East and the result is Durrell's most cinematic masterpiece Astonishing A work of splendid craft and troubling veracity New York Times Book Review A masterpiece Don't be fooled by the richness of the prose the depth of the passions Wicked and funny Guardian Dazzlingly exuberant in style and vision reckless in ambition wonderfully prolific in invention Superb Observer VOLUME THREE OF LAWRENCE DURRELL'S ALEXANDRIA QUARTET Community Notes
