Text in Contemporary Theatre Guna Zeltiņa with Sanita Reinsone, 2014-08-11 This collection of articles is devoted to the relationship between text and performance in contemporary theatre In this volume nineteen theatre and drama researchers from the Baltic countries Sweden Finland Ireland Hungary Russia and China discuss the results of their research into these issues in academic articles and essays The book mainly focuses on the experience of the Baltics in the creation of theatrical texts but it also provides a wider insight into the changing processes of world drama and theatre Three sections of the volume provide numerous examples of the functionality of traditional texts in today's theatre as well as introducing the reader to new names in contemporary drama and the different models of practice in theatre companies This book with its rich collection of material and detailed analysis of different methods and experiences of contemporary theatre is recommended for both theatre and drama theoreticians and practitioners

Theatre Criticism Duška Radosavljevic, 2016-09-08 The world of theatre criticism is rapidly changing in its form function and modes of operation in the twenty first century The dominance of the internet has led to a growing trend of selfappointed theatre critics and bloggers who are changing the focus and purpose of the discussion around live performance Even though the blogosphere has garnered suspicion and hostility from some mainstream newspaper critics it has also provided significant intellectual and ideological challenges to the increasingly conservative profile of the professional critic This book features 16 commissioned contributions from scholars arts journalists and bloggers as well as a small selection of innovative critical practice Authors from Australia Canada Croatia Germany Greece Italy Latvia Russia the UK and the US share their perspectives on relevant historical theoretical and political contexts influencing the development of the discipline as well as specific aspects of the contemporary practices and genres of theatre criticism The book features an introductory essay by its editor Du ka Radosavljevic

Soviet Theatre during the Thaw Jesse Gardiner, 2022-11-03 The era known as the Thaw 1953 64 was a crucial period in the history of the Soviet Union It was a time when the legacies of Stalinism began to unravel and when brief moments of liberalisation saw dramatic changes to society By exploring theatre productions plays and cultural debates during the Thaw this book sheds light on a society in flux in which the cultural norms values and hierarchies of the previous era were being rethought Jesse Gardiner demonstrates that the revival of avant garde theatre during the Thaw was part of a broader re engagement with cultural forms that had been banned under Stalin Plays and productions that had fallen victim to the censor were revived or reinvented and their authors and directors rehabilitated alongside waves of others who had been repressed during the Stalinist purges At the same time new theatre companies and practitioners emerged who reinterpreted the stylized techniques of the avant garde for a post war generation This book argues that the revival of avant garde theatre was vital in allowing the Soviet public to reimagine its relationship to state power the West and its own past It permitted the rethinking of attitudes and prejudices and led to calls for greater cultural diversity across society Playwrights directors and
