Teaching Islam:

Islamic Religious Education in Europe Leni Franken, Bill Gent, 2021-03-31 Against the backdrop of labour migration and the ongoing refugee crisis the ways in which Islam is taught and engaged with in educational settings has become a major topic of contention in Europe Recognising the need for academic engagement around the challenges and benefits of effective Islamic Religious Education IRE this volume offers a comparative study of curricula teaching materials and teacher education in fourteen European countries and in doing so explores local national and international complexities of contemporary IRE Considering the ways in which Islam is taught and represented in state schools public Islamic schools and non confessional classes Part One of this volume includes chapters which survey the varying degrees to which fourteen European States have adopted IRE into curricula and considers the impacts of varied teaching models on Muslim populations Moving beyond individual countries approaches to IRE chapters in Part Two offer multi disciplinary perspectives from the hermeneutical critical to the postcolonial to address challenges posed by religious teachings on issues such as feminism human rights and citizenship and the ways these are approached in European settings Given its multi faceted approach this book will be an indispensable resource for postgraduate students scholars stakeholders and policymakers working at the intersections of religion education and policy on religious education

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Education Liam Francis Gearon, Arniika Kuusisto, 2025-04-29 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Education offers a multi disciplinary work of scholarship and research highlighting the global significance of a critical interface of cultural and social political and theological importance Drawing on historical perspective and contemporary reflection the collection provides a uniquely transformative analysis of why the interface of religion and education is of such critical significance With contributions from some of the leading thinkers in the field this Handbook presents a cumulatively powerful argument to reassess the complexities of the intersection of religion and education With ambitious and yet accessible intellectual engagements the Handbook here furthers a central thesis that the interface of religion and education is not merely a matter of arcane disputation about a domain of ancient origin or a rudimentary matter of formal educational process but a vibrant domain of critical contestation fundamental to knowing understanding and living in the modern world

Teaching Islam Jenny Berglund, Teaching Islam Brannon M. Wheeler, 2002-12-19 Despite the importance of Islam in global affairs and the role of Islamic Studies in Religious Studies little attention has been given to the basic questions of how Islam should be taught This volume brings together a number of leading scholars of Islamic Studies with rich experience in teaching Islam in a diversity of undergraduate settings from large public universities to small private colleges Topics addressed include Islamic law the Quran Sufism women in Islam Islam in America and teaching about Islam through Arabic literature and the use of new information technology Along with providing practical information about structuring courses and assignments the contributors examine the place of Islamic Studies in the larger theoretical framework of Religious Studies and liberal arts
