The Communists and Peace Jean-Paul Sartre, 1969 The Writings of Jean-Paul Sartre: Contat, M. and Rybalka, M. A bibliographical life Michel Contat, Michel Rybalka, 1974 A 2 vol translation with revisions and additions of a 1 vol work published as Les écrits de Sartre chronologie bibliographie commentée by Gallimard 1970 Subjectivity and the Political Gavin Rae, Emma Ingala, 2017-10-12 Despite or quite possibly because of the structuralist post structuralist and deconstructionist critiques of subjectivity master signifiers and political foundations contemporary philosophy has been marked by a resurgence in interest in questions of subjectivity and the political Guided by the contention that different conceptions of the political are at least implicitly committed to specific conceptions of subjectivity while different conceptions of subjectivity have different political implications this collection brings together an international selection of scholars to explore these notions and their connection Rather than privilege one approach or conception of the subjectivity political relationship this volume emphasizes the nature and status of the and in the subjectivity and the political schema By thinking from the place between subjectivity and the political it is able to explore this relationship from a multitude of perspectives directions and thinkers to show the heterogeneity openness and contested nature of it While the contributions deal with different themes or thinkers the themes thinkers are linked historically and or conceptually thereby providing coherence to the volume Thinkers addressed include Arendt Butler Levinas Agamben Derrida Kristeva Adorno Gramsci Mill Hegel and Heidegger while the subjectivity political relation is engaged with through the mediation of the law political ethics politics theological political inside outside subject person and individual institution relationships as well as through concepts such as genius happiness abjection and ugliness The original essays in this volume will be of interest to researchers in philosophy politics political theory critical theory cultural studies history of ideas psychology and sociology Twentieth-century French Dramatists Mary Anne O'Neil, 2006 Essays on twentieth century French playwrights who were largely influenced by non French traditions during the greatest age of French theater since the mid 1700s French drama of the twentieth century was cosmopolitan experimental and eclectic and attempted to appeal to a wider audience than in the past Dramatists came not only from Paris but from the provinces and the French states of the Caribbean as well as from Francophone countries such as Belgium An Odyssey with Jean Paul Sartre P. K. Srivastava, 1988 The National Union Catalogs, 1963-1964 A History of Philosophy in the Twentieth Century Christian Delacampagne, 2001-11-05 In A History of Philosophy in the Twentieth Century Christian Delacampagne reviews the discipline s divergent and dramatic course and shows that its greatest figures even the most unworldly among them were deeply affected by events of their time From Ludwig Wittgenstein whose famous Tractatus was actually composed in the trenches during World War I to Edmund Husserl and Martin Heidegger one who found himself barred from public life with Hitler s coming to power the other a member of the Nazi party who later refused to repudiate German war crimes From Bertrand Russell whose lifelong pacifism led him to turn from logic and mathematics to social and moral questions and Jean Paul Sartre who made philosophy an occasion for direct and personal political engagement to Rudolf Carnap a committed socialist and Karl Popper a resolute opponent of Communism From the Vienna Circle and the Frankfurt School to the contemporary work of philosophers as variously minded as Jacques Derrida Jürgen Habermas and Hilary Putnam The thinking of these philosophers and scores of others cannot be understood without being placed in the context of the times in which they lived Sartre on Violence Ronald E.

Santoni,2003 An examination of Sartre's views on the meaning and justifiability of violence Sartre's Political Theory

William L. McBride,1991-10 Sartre's Political Theory presents the first detailed study of Jean Paul Sartre's political philosophy Taking Sartre's twin ideals of Socialism and Freedom as his guiding theme William L McBride traces the evolution of Sartre's thinking about history ethics politics and society from his early essays during World War II to the time of his death in 1980 McBride discusses in depth the main moments in the development of Sartre's sociopolitical views including Cahiers pour une morale Critique of Dialectical Reason and the new directions of Sartre's thought during his last years Sartre's Political Theory is both a historical narrative connecting Sartre's ideas to the events of his times and a trenchant philosophical analysis posing fundamental questions about human society and history and about the appropriate focal points of political philosophy Jean-Paul Sartre, Philosophy in the World Ronald Aronson,1980 Enemies of Empire John

Gaffar La Guerre,1984 The Socialist Register ,1974 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1969
