The Company We Kept:

The Company We Keep Michael Pakaluk, 2025-10-15 No one has greater love than this to lay down one's life for one's friends John 15:13 What does it mean to live friendship as a Christian In a culture of fleeting connections and digital noise The Company We Keep offers a compelling return to the wisdom of Aristotle St Thomas Aquinas the Gospel and Christian tradition to rediscover the lost art and meaning of true friendship as a vital part of holiness and discipleship Catholic philosopher Michael Pakaluk invites readers to see friendship not as optional but essential a moral spiritual and deeply human bond that reflects our highest calling With clarity and warmth he explores the kinds of friendship that shape our lives from casual camaraderie to the deep sacrificial love between spouses parents and children Whether you seek richer relationships deeper community or a more meaningful life of faith this book will challenge and inspire you to choose your company wisely and to become the kind of friend that is crucial and indispensable in the lives of your loved ones It is a book about community growing in love and following Christ more closely together Companies We Keep John Abrams, 2008-11-08 Part memoir and part examination of a new business model the 2005 release of The Company We Keep marked the debut of an important new voice in the literature of American business Now in Companies We Keep the revised and expanded edition of his 2005 work John Abrams further develops his idea that companies flourish when they become centers of interdependence or communities of enterprise Thoroughly revised with an expanded focus on employee ownership and workplace democracy Companies We Keep celebrates the idea that when employees share in the rewards as well as the responsibility for the decisions they make better decisions result This is an especially timely topic Most of the baby boomer generation the owners of millions of American businesses will retire within the next two decades In 2001 50 000 businesses changed hands In 2005 that number rose to 350 000 Projections call for 750 000 ownership transitions in 2009 Employee ownership in both the philosophical and the practical sense is gathering steam as businesses change hands and Abrams examines some of the many ways this is done Companies We Keep is structured around eight principles from Sharing Ownership and Cultivating Workplace Democracy to Thinking Like Cathedral Builders and Committing to the Business of Place that Abrams has discovered in the 32 years since he cofounded South Mountain Company on the island of Martha's Vineyard Together these principles reveal communities of enterprise as a potent force of change that can and will improve the way Americans do business Proceedings of the State Board of Equalization Begun and Held in the City of Springfield, Illinois Illinois.
