The Contemporary Yes:

Anthony Giddens Stjepan Mestrovic, 2005-08-31 Anthony Giddens is arguably the world's leading sociologist. In this controversial contribution to the Giddens debate, Stjepan Mestrovic takes up and criticizes the major themes of his work, particularly the concept of high modernity as opposed to postmodernity and his attempted construction of a synthetic tradition based on human agency and structure. Testing Giddens' theories against what is happening in the real world, from genocide in Africa to near secession in Quebec, Mestrovic discerns in the construction of synthetic traditions not the promise of freedom held out by Giddens but rather the ominous potential for new forms of totalitarian control. Artificial Economics

Ces Reo Hern Ndez, Marta Posada, Adolfo L. Pez-Paredes, 2011-09-28 Simulation is used in economics to solve large econometric models for large scale micro simulations and to obtain numerical solutions for policy design in top down established models. But these applications fail to take advantage of the methods offered by artificial economics. AE through artificial intelligence and distributed computing is a bottom up and generative approach of agent based modelling developed to get a deeper insight into the complexity of economics. AE can be viewed as a very elegant and general class of modelling techniques that generalize numerical economics, mathematical programming and micro simulation approaches. The papers presented in this book address methodological questions and applications of AE to macroeconomics, industrial organization, information and learning, market dynamics, finance and financial markets. National Strategic Planning and Practice

Liaquat Hossain, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2001. This text explores the relationship between telecommunications, strategic planning process, TSPP, the organization and the environment for developing an understanding of the idea of a national TSPP. NTSP in Thailand. The overall aim is to explore an understanding of an NTSP by providing a detailed study of the strategic planning and practices of the Thai telecom regulators during the period from 1954 to 1996. It applies the strategic planning process principles to further the understanding of NTSP in Thailand. By using the SPP framework, the study develops a theoretical TSPP framework for analyzing the underlying TSPP strategies within the national telecom regulators in Thailand. It also seeks to illustrate the limitations of the traditional strategic planning theory when applied to NTSP. From a theoretical perspective, this book illustrates that a lack of formalization and consensus in Thailand's NTSP is the fundamental backlog for the successful operation of its industry. Christianity and Crisis, 1956 A bi-weekly journal of Christian opinion. Enclosing Space, Opening New Ground

Tanja Romankiewicz, Manuel Fernández-Götz, Gary Lock, Olivier Büchsenschütz, 2019-03-31 Enclosures are among the most widely distributed features of the European Iron Age. From fortifications to field systems, they demarcate territories and settlements, sanctuaries and central places, burials and ancestral grounds. This dividing of the physical and the mental landscape between an inside and an outside is investigated anew in a series of essays by some of the leading scholars on the topic. The contributions cover new ground from Scotland to Spain, between France and the Eurasian steppe, on how concepts and communities were created as well as exploring specific aspects and broader notions of how humans marked bounded and guarded landscapes in order to connect across space and time A recurring theme considers how Iron Age enclosures created curated formed or deconstructed memory and identity and how by enclosing space these communities opened links to an earlier past in order to understand or express their Iron Age presence In this way the contributions examine perspectives that are of wider relevance for related themes in different periods Parnellism and crime: the special commission Special commission to inquire into charges and allegations against certain members of parliament and others,1889 Parnellism and Crime: Evidence of Mr. Parnell ,1889
