The Context Of The Reformation

James Cranstoun

The Context Of The Reformation:

The Reformation of Faith in the Context of Late Medieval Theology and Piety Berndt Hamm, 2004 This book is the first major collection of articles by Berndt Hamm in English translation. The articles employ previously neglected sermons, devotional and pastoral treatises to reassess the question of continuity and change between late medieval and Reformation theology and piety

The Dynamics of the Early Reformation in their Reformed Augustinian Context Robert Christman, 2025-10-01 On 1 July 1523 Johann van den Esschen and Hendrik Voes two Augustinian friars from Antwerp were burned on the Grand Plaza in Brussels thereby becoming the first victims of the Reformation. Despite being well known the event barely registers in most Reformation histories. By tracing its origins and examining the impact of the executions on Martin Luther on the Reformed Augustinian world and on the early Reformation in the Low Countries and the German speaking lands this study definitively demonstrates that the burnings were in fact the d'ouement of broader trends within Late Medieval Reformed Augustinianism as well as a watershed in the early Reformation. In doing so it also reveals the central role played by the Augustinian friars of Lower Germany in shaping both the content and spread of the early Reformation as well as Wittenberg's influence on the events leading up to these first executions. Winner of the Gerald Strauss Book Prize awarded by the Sixteenth Century Society Conference for the best book in the field of German Reformation history
