The Blaskets:

The Blaskets Muiris Mac Conghail, 1987 Great Blasket Island is a townland in the parish of Dunquin county Kerry

Decameron Giovanni Boccaccio, 2004 Boccaccio's Decameron recasts the storytelling heritage of the ancient and medieval worlds into perennial forms that inspired writers from Chaucer and Shakespeare down to our own day Dark Day on the Blaskets Mícheál Ó Dubhshláine, 2003 A compelling portrait of a young woman as well as an engrossing portrait of West Kerry at a turning point in its cultural history Dark Day on the Blaskets weaves an intricate tale out of the intersecting lives of Eileen Nicholls one of the finest scholars in the new national movement James Cousins a poet and playwright from Belfast and his wife Gretta who had been involved with the suffragette movement Dubhshláine follows the intensely mystical month in the Great Blasket leading up to the discovery of Eileen's body which was found off the coast of the island

The Last Blasket King Gerald Hayes, Eliza Kane, 2015-04-20 The last King of the Great Blasket Island was Pdraig Cathín known as Peats Mhic who served for quarter of a century until his death in 1929 The King helped the islanders navigate through life and through national as well as international events such as the 1916 Rising and the Great War This book tells how he came to be King of the Great Blasket Island and how his personality and integrity shaped the role This is the first account of the King's extraordinary life written in collaboration with his descendants in the USA and Ireland It tells the story of this unique man his many contributions to the island and his extended legacy Also available From the Great Blasket to America by Michael Carney and The Loneliest Boy in the World by Gearóid Cheaist Cathín Empire's Wake: Postcolonial Irish Writing and the Politics of Modern Literary Form Mark Quigley, 2013 Traces development of Irish literary modernism from the 1920s to the 1990s through the writings of James Joyce John Millington Synge Samuel Beckett Sean O Faolain Frank McCourt and the Blasket Island autobiographers Tomás Ó Crohan and Maurice O Sullivan Considers Irish literature in relation to Irish nationalism and aftermath of British empire Empire's Wake Mark Quigley, 2012-12-10 Shedding new light on the rich intellectual and political milieux shaping the divergent legacies of Joyce and Yeats Empire's Wake traces how a distinct postcolonial modernism emerged within Irish literature in the late 1920s to contest and extend key aspects of modernist thought and aesthetic innovation at the very moment that the high modernist literary canon was consolidating its influence and prestige By framing its explorations of postcolonial narrative form against the backdrop of distinct historical moments from the Irish Free State to the Celtic Tiger era the book charts the different phases of 20th century postcoloniality in ways that clarify how the comparatively early emergence of the postcolonial in Ireland illuminates the formal shifts accompanying the transition from an age of empire to one of globalization Bringing together new perspectives on Beckett and Joyce with analyses of the critically neglected works of Sean O Faolain Frank McCourt and the Blasket autobiographers Empire's Wake challenges the notion of a singular global modernism and argues for the importance of critically integrating the local and the international dimensions of modernist aesthetics The Ibis, 1891 Sailing Directions for the
