How Did Television
Change People's Lives?

The Beginning of Television

Television allowed people to experience events live from anywhere before they could have had to be at the scene in person.

Another milestone came with the first talking, synchronized film broadcast in 1928. However, the first real live telecast, in which people could see people experience their lives.

As television's popularity grew, other television stations were established. By the end of the 20th century, CNN, Channel 5, Channel 4 and Sky were all available to British
