The Ancient Unconscious Vered Lev Kenaan, 2019-05-08 In the field of classical studies the psychoanalytic construction of the unconscious is rarely regarded as a fruitful methodological concept Commonly understood as a modern conceptual invention rather than the discovery of a psychic reality the notion of the unconscious is often criticized as an anachronistic lens one that ineluctably subjects ancient experience to modern patterns of thought The Ancient Unconscious seeks to challenge this ambivalent theoretical disposition toward the psychoanalytic concept and reclaim the value of the unconscious as a methodological tool for the study of ancient texts by transforming our understanding of what the unconscious means the way it operates and how it relates to textual hermeneutics It considers the debate over whether the ancients had an unconscious as an invitation to rethink the relationship between antiquity and modernity investigating the meaning of textuality through contact between historical moments that have no priority under the law of chronology associations and connections between the past and its future including the present belong to the sphere of the unconscious which is primarily employed here in order to study the inherent often hidden links that bind modernity to classical antiquity and modern to ancient experiences Drawing on an incisive examination of the complicated often conflicted relationship between classical studies and psychoanalytic theory the volume aims to explain why the concept of the unconscious is in fact inseparable from and crucial for the study of the ancient text and more generally the methodology of classical philology

Dickens, Family, Authorship Lynn Cain, 2017-05-15 Drawing on a wide range of Dickens s writings including all of his novels and a selection of his letters journalism and shorter fiction Dickens Family Authorship provides a provocative account of the evolution of an author from whose psychological honesty and imaginative generosity emerged precocious fictional portents of Freudian and post Freudian theory The decade 1843 1853 was pivotal in Dickens s career A phase of feverish activity on both personal and professional fronts it included the irrevocable souring of his relations with his parents the peripatetic residence in continental Europe and a massive proliferation of writing and editing activities including the aborted autobiography It was a period of astounding creativity which consolidated Dickens s authorial and financial stature It was also one tainted by loss the deaths of his father sister and daughter and the alarming desertion of his early facility for composition Lynn Cain s substantial study of the four novels produced during this turbulent decade Martin Chuzzlewit Dombey and Son David Copperfield and Bleak House traces the evolution of Dickens's creative imagination to discover in the modulating fictional representation of family relationships a paradigm for his authorial development. Closely argued readings demonstrate a reorientation from a patriarchal to a maternal dynamic which signals a radical shift in Dickens's creative technique. Interweaving critical analysis of the four novels with biography and the linguistic and psychoanalytic writings of modern theorists especially Kristeva and Lacan, Lynn Cain explores the connection between Dickens's susceptibility to depression during this period and his increasingly self-conscious exploitation of his own mental states in his fiction.

Critical Moments Fintan O'Toole, 2003. Few figures are more respected and quoted internationally than Fintan O'Toole both as a controversial and provocative political commentator and theatre critic. This extensive collection brings together a wide range of his writings going back to 1980. It provides a privileged insight into the great moments of contemporary Irish theatre marking the contributions of playwrights Carr, Murphy, Friel, McGuinness, directors Hynes, Byrne, actors Hickey, McKenna, and designers Vanek, Frawley. It also demonstrates his unsettling of the usual canon with his thoughtful arguments promoting certain playwrights who deserve to be there with Ireland's best including Antoine O'Flatharta, Paul Mercier, Dermot Bolger, and David Byrne.

Reading Lacan Jane Gallop, 2018-08-06. The influence of the French psychoanalyst Jacques Lacan has extended into nearly every field of the humanities and social sciences from literature and film studies to anthropology and social work yet Lacan's major text Écrits continues to perplex and even baffle its readers. In Reading Lacan Jane Gallop offers a novel approach to Lacan's work based on his own theories of language. Lacan locates truth in the letter rather than in the spirit in the ways statements are expressed rather than in their intended meaning. Gallop here grapples with six of Lacan's essays from Écrits: The Seminar on The Purloined Letter, The Mirror Stage, The Freudian Thing, The Agency of the Letter in the Unconscious, The Signification of the Phallus, and The Subversion of the Subject. While other commentators have chosen not to confront Lacan's notoriously problematic style in their discussions of his ideas, Gallop addresses herself directly to the problem and the practice of reading Lacan. She takes her direction from Lacan's view of subjectivity and offers a deeply personal feminist reading of Écrits. Concentrating on the relation of desire and interpretation, she opens up the rich implications of Lacan's thought for psychoanalytic theory for the act of reading and for knowledge itself. Forceful and revealing yet utterly candid about its own areas of uncertainty, Gallop's book will be indispensable to readers of Lacan and to scholars and students who have felt his impact.
