The Death of Rocketry Joel Dickinson, Robert Cook, 1980 Rocket States: Atomic Weaponry and the Cultural Imagination Fabienne Collignon, 2014-07-31 Rocket States crosses the disciplines of Cold War Studies American Literature American Studies and Cultural Studies The particular attraction of this study lies in the combination of its range close textual and visual analysis of the correlations between land and weaponry set firmly within its political and cultural contexts with its unique analytical approach The book offers a synthesis between history theories of technology theories of space popular culture literary study and military science It illuminates a variety of literary texts from key writers and thinkers such as Pynchon Stephen King Norman Mailer and Tom Wolfe while also invoking figures like Nikola Tesla James Webb Batman and Ronald Reagan Organised topographically according to how missile technology manifests itself differently in particular locations Rocket States's geographical targets are Colorado Kansas Cape Canaveral and New York variously titled Excavation Preservation Evacuation and Transmission It advances through these states roughly chronologically beginning in the late 1940s and early 1950s and coming to an end in the first part of the 21st century Collignon's argument is concerned with identifying the recurring figures and fantasies of the Cold War the dome or parabola as sheltering techno form the fictions of total security adapting to constantly changing targeting strategies gadget love closed freezing worlds As such Rocket States analyses by what processes the Cold War is frequently literalised in its weapons installations and how these facilities in turn shape dreams of containment survival escape techno supremacy

Rockets and Revolution offers a multifaceted study of the race toward space in the first half of the twentieth century examining how the Russian European and American pioneers competed against one another in the early years to acquire the fundamentals of rocket science engineer simple rockets and ultimately prepare the path for human spaceflight Between 1903 and 1953 Russia matured in radical and dramatic ways as the tensions and expectations of the Russian revolution drew it both westward and spaceward European and American industrial capacities became the models to imitate and to surpass The burden was always on Soviet Russia to catch up enough to achieve a number of remarkable firsts in these years from the first national rocket society to the first comprehensive surveys of spaceflight Russia rose to the challenges of its Western rivals time and again transcending the arenas of science and technology and adapting rocket science to popular culture science fiction political ideology and military programs While that race seemed well on its way to achieving the goal of space travel and exploring life on other planets during the second half of the twentieth century these scientific advances turned back on humankind with the development of the intercontinental ballistic missile and the coming of the Cold War Sociology

Through the Projector Bulent Diken, Carsten Bagge Laustsen, 2008-10 Sociology through the Projector takes issue with the question of how contemporary film can help answering the general abstract but still urgent question what is the social today This book explains the performative relation to contemporary social theory in which cinema functions as a tool for social diagnosis There is much to be learned about social theory through an encounter with films as films are part and parcel of the society they portray Increasingly more lay knowledge about social problems and facts stems from cinema as it offers to large audiences a popular and pedagogical introduction to social knowledge Social theory cannot avoid a critical engagement with cinema as cinema interprets invents displaces and distorts the object of sociological inquiry This book will provide a deeper understanding of contemporary social theory as the chosen films will work as a pedagogical route into contemporary social theory The films represent a mix of European and American blockbusters and more aesthetically orientated films The authors question several dominant topics and concerns within social theory and film studies Firstly by cross examining a series of concepts such as identity representation memory and surveillance filming social behaviour which are of concern to both film theory and social theory Secondly by trying to develop imaginative approaches to standard social concerns such as exclusion gender roles and inequalities power infantilisation and commodification of the social and psychological bonds This book will be a great resource for students and researchers of Sociology Contemporary Social Theory Film Studies and Cultural Studies
