Guide Technology and Teaching K. Thiyyagu, 2011 Technology Education for Teachers P. John Williams, 2013-02-11 This is a textbook for use in technology teacher training and also a reference book for technology teachers. It will provide a foundation for new teachers entering the area of technology and also the opportunity for practicing teachers to keep up to date with research informed ideas about teaching technology. Technology in the curriculum has continually faced a range of challenges throughout its history in many countries. Often the basis of the challenges is the result of a lack of understanding about good technology practice. It is hoped that this book can encourage excellent practice in technology teaching and so increase the number of schools positively engaged with technology. The chapter authors are internationally respected and experienced educators who have been able to draw on both their teaching experience and their research in order to discuss a range of aspects of teaching technology. The book has been developed with an international audience in mind. While authors are naturally most familiar with their own country efforts have been made to generalize from the principles of sound theory and research based practice to maximize applicability to local contexts. John Williams is the Director of the Technology Environmental Mathematics and Science Education Research Centre at the University of Waikato in New Zealand. He has worked as a designer and builder and began his career as a secondary school Manual Arts teacher. He has taught and studied in Australia and the USA and in a number of African and Indian Ocean countries. He has published and presented widely and enjoys fishing.

The Technology Toolbelt for Teaching Susan Manning, Kevin E. Johnson, 2011-01-31 Instructors are under pressure to integrate technology into their traditional or online instruction but often they aren't sure what to do or why they should do it. The Technology Toolbelt for Teaching offers instructors a down to earth guide to common technologies. It explains the pedagogical purposes they serve and shows how they can be used effectively in online or face to face classrooms. Designed to be easy to use, the book includes a decision making matrix for each technology tool, a series of questions that teachers can use to decide whether these tools support their teaching goals. This comprehensive resource contains an array of useful tools that address problems of organization such as a time management calendar aids for scheduling meetings and mind mapping or graphic organizers. The authors also include a variety of online tools for communication and collaboration and tools to present content, help establish presence and assess learning. Praise for The Technology Toolbelt for Teaching: Feeling overwhelmed and even afraid of integrating technology into your course? Fear no more! Susan Manning and Kevin Johnson have provided the ultimate guide that explains not only the various technology tools that can support faculty work and enhance coursework but also provides sound advice to help faculty choose the right tool for the job. This is a must-read for all faculty regardless of their experience with technology. Rena M. Palloff and Keith Pratt, managing partners, Crossroads Consulting Group and authors, Building Online Learning Communities and Collaborating Online. The Technology Toolbelt for Teaching delivers exactly what it promises: a concrete overview of a wide variety of tools complete with examples specific to practitioners in both K-12 and higher education. Authors Susan Manning and Kevin Johnson provide practical applications.
