Gulson, 2017-11-01 This edited collection examines the ways in which the local and global are key to understanding race and racism in the intersectional context of contemporary education Analysing a broad range of examples it highlights how race and racism is a relational phenomenon that interconnects local national and global contexts and ideas The current educational climate is subject to global influences and the effects of conservative hyper nationalist politics and neoliberal economic rationalising in local settings that are creating new formations of race and racism While focused predominantly on Australia and southern world or settler colonial contexts the book aims to constructively contribute to broader emerging research and debates about race and education Through the adoption of a relational framing it draws the Australian context into the global conversation about race and racism in education in ways that challenge and test current understandings of the operation of race and racism in contemporary social and educational spaces Importantly it also pushes debates about race and racism in education and research to the foreground in Australia where such debates are typically dismissed or cursorily engaged The book will guide readers as they navigate issues of race in education research and practice and its chapters will serve as provocations designed to assist in critically understanding this challenging field It reaches beyond education scholarship as concerns to do with race remain intertwined with wider social justice issues such as access to housing health social economic mobility and political representation Ultra Running Oliver Scott, AI, 2025-03-10 Ultra Running explores the extreme world of ultra marathons races exceeding 26 2 miles by examining the vital components needed for success training physiology and mental fortitude This book argues that excelling in ultra running isn't just about natural talent but a combination of strategic training and mental resilience One intriguing fact is how athletes adapt their cardiovascular systems to handle prolonged exertion Another is the use of specific mental strategies to combat pain and fatigue during these grueling events The book progresses logically beginning with an introduction to ultra running and its challenges It then explores training methodologies like periodization and strength training physiological adaptations such as muscle fiber changes and psychological aspects including mindfulness and goal setting Ultra Running provides a balanced view by integrating sports psychology exercise physiology and nutrition science This makes it unique offering actionable advice training plans and nutrition guidelines applicable to runners and coaches alike A Pilgrimage to Nejd, the Cradle of the Arab Race Anne Blunt Lady, 1881 A Run Round the World; Or, The Adventures of Three Young Americans Henry Lyell, 1891 History of the Negro Race in America from 1619 to 1880 George Washington Williams, 1882
