The Avoidance Of Literature Collected Essays Of Ch Sisson:

The Avoidance of Literature Charles Hubert Sisson,1978 "The" Avoidance of Literature C.H. Sisson,1978 Swift's Satires on Modernism: Battlegrounds of Reading and Writing G. Atkins,2012-12-17 More than three centuries later Jonathan Swift's writing remains striking and relevant In this engaging study Atkins brings forty plus years of critical experience to bear on some of the greatest satires ever written revealing new contexts for understanding post Reformation reading practices and the development of the modern personal essay In Black and Gold C. C. Barfoot,1994 In Black and Gold indicates that opposed styles of poetry reveal subterranean correspondences that occasionally meet and run together Austerity or tomfoolery are two of the many valid responses to the human condition that create the contiguous traditions that cannot help touching and reacting to each other The poetry discussed in this book deals with the relation of individuals to strange or to familiar landscapes and what this means to their own sense of displacement or rootedness with the use of history as an escape from or as a challenge to an apparently failing present and with the role of nationalism either as a refuge for angry frustration or as a weapon against the affronting world or as an ambivalent loyalty that needs to be scoured or as all three Here we find poetry as a means of discovering true or false allegiances and valid or invalid public and private identities poetry as a medium for exploring the uses of the demotic in confronting the breakdowns and injustices of modern democracy poetry as play in the midst of private and public woe poetry as a spiritual quest as a spiritual scourging as a wrestling with spiritual absences and poetry as an intermittent and sporadic commemoration of the triumphs and delights of epiphanic encounters with the physical world Speaking to You Natalie Pollard,2012-08-30 Speaking to You examines our pleasures in accounts of and uses for British poetry today It explores the work of four important poets writing post 1960 Don Paterson Geoffrey Hill W S Graham and C H Sisson in order to show how contemporary British poetry's creative handling of addresses to you are key in its interactions with readers critics lovers editors fellow poets and deceased forebears The book lays out clearly in four sections that focus on individual writers how saying you operates in contemporary poetry It shows how lyric address is bound up with poetry's ability to delight move and tease its public It puts address into dialogue with a range of familiar literary figures across the ages namely specific Modernist Romantic early Modern and Classical poets that will be familiar to scholars and ordinary readers alike From John Donne to Carol Ann Duffy T S Eliot to Philip Larkin Keats to Tony Harrison address has been key in constructing political and personal identities This book argues that for contemporary poets like that of these canonical writers address is persuasive public interlocution demanding you rethink regional and historical allegiances Magill's Literary Annual, 1980 Frank Northen Magill,1980 Reviews of significant fiction and nonfiction published in 1979 Provides coverage for works that are likely to be of particular interest to the general reader that reflect the publishing trends of a given year and that will stand up to the test of time A Selected Catalog of the Ezra Pound Collection at Hamilton College Hamilton College (Clinton, N.Y.).
