The Ethos Of Pluralization Borderlines Vol 1:

Bioarchaeology of Frontiers and Borderlands Cristina I. Tica, Debra L. Martin, 2019-08-21 Bioarchaeology of Frontiers and Borderlands presents a series of cases addressing how living on or interacting with the frontier can affect health and socioeconomic status. The goal is to explore how people in the past might have maintained, created, or manipulated their identity while living in a place of liminality, stuck in between worlds. The zone of in-betweenness of demarcation between two or more spheres of influence is a very dynamic and potentially violent place. This book aims to explore how different groups stuck in these zones were affected, how they interacted with the different worlds, and how they lived their lives on the edge.

Discourse Theory and Political Analysis David R. Howarth, Aletta J. Norval, Yannis Stavrakakis, 2000-11-18 How can recent developments in post structuralist, post Marxist, and psychoanalytical theory actually inform ongoing empirical research? What are the appropriate methods and research strategies for conducting research in discourse theory and analysis? How can concepts such as hegemony, identity, the imaginary, dislocation, and empty signifiers illuminate key aspects of contemporary society and politics? This pathbreaking and multi-focal book contains a clear introductory statement of the theoretical approach used and concludes with an assessment of the future directions of discourse theory in the social sciences.

Reimagining Nonprofits Eva Witesman, Curtis Child, 2024-02 Authors from around the world critique and expand on nonprofit sector theories from a diverse range of contexts and perspectives. Whose Hunger? Jenny Edkins, 2000 We see famine and look for the likely causes: poor food distribution, unstable regimes, caprices of weather. A technical problem we tell ourselves one that modern social and natural science will someday resolve. To the contrary, Jenny Edkins responds in this book. Famine in the contemporary world is not the antithesis of modernity but its symptom. A critical investigation of hunger, famine, and aid practices in international politics. Whose Hunger shows how the forms and ideas of modernity frame our understanding of famine and consequently shape our responses. Globalization in Crisis Barry K. Gills, 2013-09-13 This book analyses the present global financial and economic crisis, the most severe in nearly a century, and a wider set of multiple and converging crises with aspects and repercussions that go well beyond the current economic climate. Written by some of the world's leading international scholars in the field of Globalization studies and related disciplines, this important collection addresses numerous key aspects of the relationship between Globalization and global crises past, present, and future. It sheds new light and understanding on the concept and theory of Globalization and of crisis. The authors explore such issues as global finance and financial regulation, neoliberal ideology and policy, the crisis of globalization, the decline of Western hegemony, world systemic crisis, the moral crisis of Western capitalism, environmental and climate change crises, world order, hyper violence, and the international system, a crisis of the global modern and a global civilisational and hostpicio crisis, the rise of the global South, the historical dialectics of capital and social responses to crisis, the future of capitalism, and the prospects for transformative alternatives. This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations. Subject Guide to
