The Evil That Kids Do:

Idolising Children Daniel Donahoo,2007 Obsessed with our own youth and wanting perfect genius children who live in a world of designer clothes and toys it's time for us to find new ways of parenting and a new kind of childhood With humour insight and emotion Daniel Donahoo reflects on the place of children in our society by looking at everything from fertility rates childcare the role of the media and the day to day joys and challenges of being a parent Donahoo argues that idolising is a form of worship that adversely affects our children's development in their early years and creates citizens who no longer understand their roles and responsibilities It makes parents feel unnecessarily guilty and anxious Without blame or finger pointing Idolising Children examines how we arrived here and looks at what needs to change so that communities as a whole are responsible for raising children Book jacket

The Cultural Construction of Monstrous Children

Simon Bacon,Leo Ruickbie,2020-09-30 The Cultural Construction of Monstrous Children raises important questions at the heart of society and culture and through an interdisciplinary trans cultural analysis presents important findings on socio cultural representations and embodiments of the child and childhood At the start of the 21st new anxieties constellate around the child and childhood while older concerns have re emerged mutated and grown stronger But as historical analysis shows they have been ever present concerns This innovative and interdisciplinary collection of essays considers examples of monstrous children since the 16th century to the present spanning real life and popular culture to exhibit the manifestation of the Western cultural anxiety around the problematic anomalous child as naughty dangerous or just plain evil The book takes an inter and multidisciplinary approach drawing upon fields as diverse as sociology psychology film and literature to study the role of the child and childhood within contemporary Western culture and to see the historic ways in which each discipline intersects and influences the other

Visions of the End Times

Laura Duhan-Kaplan,Anne-Marie Ellithorpe,Harry O. Maier,2022-11-11 Global challenges fill the news today It's not always easy to balance fear with hope That's why this book points to resources for optimism and action A diverse group of scholars draw on Jewish Christian Islamic and Mori traditions to describe challenges and hopes They recognize the ruptures of militarism trauma colonialism religious nationalism climate change and more But they also describe the healing power of communal action spiritual practices biblical literature and the arts

Cruel Children in Popular Texts and Cultures Monica Flegel,Christopher Parkes,2018-04-19 This book explores how alarmist social discourses about cruel young people fail to recognize the complexity of cruelty and the role it plays in child agency Examining representations of cruel young people in popular texts and popular culture the collected essays demonstrate how gender race and class influence who gets labeled cruel and which actions are viewed as negative aggressive and disruptive It shows how representations of cruel young people negotiate the violence that shadows polite society and how narratives of cruelty and aggression are used to affirm or to deny young people's agency
