The Rustlers of Pecos County Zane Grey,2021-03-14 A month had passed a swift flying time full of new life Wonderful it was for me to think I was still in Diane Sampson s employ It was the early morning hour of a day in May The sun had not yet grown hot Dew like diamond drops sparkled on the leaves and grass The gentle breeze was clear sweet with the song of larks upon it And the range a sea of gray green growing greener swept away westward in rolling ridges and hollows like waves to meet the dark low hills that notched the horizon line of blue I was sitting on the top bar of the corral fence and before me stood three saddled horses that would have gladdened any eye I was waiting to take the young ladies on their usual morning ride Once upon a time in what seemed the distant past to this eventful month I had flattered myself there had been occasions for thought but scornfully I soliloquized that in those days I had no cue for thought such as I had now This was one of the moments when my real self seemed to stand off and skeptically regard the fictitious cowboy This gentleman of the range wore a huge sombrero with an ornamented silver band a silken scarf of red a black velvet shirt much affected by the Indians an embroidered buckskin vest corduroys and fringed chaps with silver buttons a big blue gun swinging low high heeled boots and long spurs with silver rowels A flash cowboy Steele vowed I was a born actor But I never divulged the fact that had it not been for my infatuation for Sally I never could have carried on that part not to save the Ranger service or the whole State of Texas
