The Haj:

The Haj Leon Uris, 1984      Travels in Arabia Deserta Charles Montagu Doughty, 1888      Muslim Merit-making in Thailand's Far-South Christopher M. Joll, 2011-11-02 This volume provides an ethnographic description of Muslim merit making rhetoric rituals and rationales in Thailand's Malay far south This study is situated in Cabetigo one of Pattani's oldest and most important Malay communities that has been subjected to a range of Thai and Islamic influences over the last hundred years The volume describes religious rhetoric related to merit making being conducted in both Thai and Malay that the spiritual currency of merit is generated through the performance of locally occurring Malay adat and globally normative amal ibadat Concerning the rationale for merit making merit makers are motivated by both a desire to ensure their own comfort in the grave and personal vindication at judgment as well as to transfer merit for those already in the grave who are known to the merit maker While the rhetoric elements of Muslim merit making reveal Thai influence its ritual elements confirm the local impact of reformist activism      Two Arabs, a Berber, and a Jew Lawrence Rosen, 2016 Drawn from Memory is an important contribution to Moroccan studies to the field of anthropology and to academic approaches to biography Rosen weaves the threads of his narrative together into a tapestry focused on the lives of four men a raconteur a teacher an entrepreneur and a cloth dealer a Jew Ordinary people have intellectual lives Rosen tells us They may never have written a book they may never even have read one But their lives are rich in ideas constantly fashioned and revised elaborated and rearranged Rosen first encountered the four men he profiles in his book in the course of his academic research and he then visited and revisited these men and the towns in which they live over several decades He engaged them in a kind of continuous conversation He spoke to members of their family their neighbors and the town people Out of this wealth of material he has constructed a narrative that takes the reader not only into four intensely observed individual lives but also as it were the history of Morocco's evolution across the span of many decades he takes the reader not only into the outwardly lived lives of his subjects but their innermost thoughts their own perceptions of themselves and the evolving Moroccan world around them At the same time he manages to evoke the physical landscape the towns in which these men live marvelously well so that the towns and their inhabitants come alive for the reader Beautifully illustrated with archival and ethnographic photos Drawn from Memory teaches us that that for Moroccans and by extension Muslims in general nothing in everyday social life is hard and fast and the meaning and outcome of all interactions is the product of negotiation and relatedness      The Swedish Settlements on the Delaware, 1638-1664 Amandus Johnson, 1996      Communication, Social Structure and Development in Rural Malaysia William Wilder, 2021-01-07 This is an important innovative analysis of communication and society in Pahang West Malaysia based on fieldwork carried out in Kampung Kuala Bera Dr Wilder is concerned with communication networks of all kinds as found in a long established Malay village including the uses of language small scale kinship and village based networks and higher level systems the district and the nation as a whole Dr

Wilder lays particular emphasis on the role of communication in the process of economic development and on administration during a period of rapid and induced social change His study is prefaced by a detailed historical account of Pahang and a thorough sociological analysis of Kampung Kuala Bera The ethnography is meticulously detailed its special contribution includes the first ever publication of a Malay village genealogy a systematic account of birth order names a major feature of the kinship system complete figures on marital breakdowns for the whole village population and an intensive analysis of leadership in its local context This work will be of value to students of Southeast Asian societies rural sociology network studies economic development political education and the mass media in third world countries
