The Hearts Wild Surf:

The Heart's Wild Surf Stephanie Johnson, 2014-10-03 Romantic funny and surprising this novel is a bold exploration of love in a time of confusion In Fiji at the end of 1918 the distant Great War is drawing to a close and Spanish flu is raging Twelve year old Olive McNab is sent from Suva to stay with her aunt and uncle on a plantation on Tavenui On this magical and mysterious island she uncovers some startling well kept secrets The death of her mother her friendship with two independent women and a series of adventures change Olive's life for ever Johnson's work is marked by a dry irony a sharp edged humour that focuses unerringly on the frailties and foolishness of her characters There is compassion though and sensitivity in the development of complex situations A purposeful sense of such larger concerns balances Johnson's precision with the small details of situation character and voice that give veracity and colour The Oxford Companion to New Zealand Literature The Sailmaker's Daughter Stephanie Johnson, 2003-07-14

It is 1918 and Spanish Flu is epidemic in Suva the capital of Fiji Twelve year old Olive is sent with her brothers and grandmother to Taveuni to stay with her childless aunt and uncle on their sugar plantation to escape the disease as her mother lies dying of the flu in their family home The months that follow hold magic and sorrow for Olive as she uncovers well kept family secrets and grieves for her dying mother The Sailmaker's Daughter is dedicated to the memory of Stephanie Johnson's grandmother who was born in Fiji in 1905 Like Olive in the book her grandmother was one of a large family her father was the sailmaker in Suva and her mother died of the Spanish Flu at the end of the Great War The Sailmaker's Daughter is both a tribute to Stephanie Johnson's grandmother and a powerful evocation of a mystical paradise lived and lost Strange Meetings Harry Ricketts, 2015-02-26 Strange Meetings provides a highly original account of the War Poets of 1914-1918 written through a series of actual encounters or near encounters from Siegfried Sassoon's first blushing meeting with Rupert Brooke over kidneys and bacon at Eddie Marsh's breakfasts before the war through famous moments like Sassoon's encouragement of Owen when both are in hospital at the same time on to the poignant meeting between Edward Thomas's widow and Ivor Gurney in 1932 and the last strange lunch and longish talk of Sassoon and David Jones in 1964 half a century after the great war began Among the other poets and writers we encounter are Vera Brittain Roland Leighton Robert Graves Isaac Rosenberg Robert Nichols and Edmund Blunden Ricketts's unusual approach allows him to follow their relationships marking their responses to each other's work and showing how these affected their own poetry one potent strand for example is the profound influence of Brooke both as a model to follow and a burden to reject The stories become intensely personal and vivid we come to know each of the poets their family and intellectual backgrounds and their very different personalities And while the accounts of individual lives achieve the imaginative vividness of a novel they also give us an entirely fresh sense of Georgian poetry conveying all the excitement and frustration of poetic creation and demonstrating how the whole notion of what poetry should be about became fractured and changed for ever by the terrible experiences of the war Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial
