Satellites in the High Country Jason Mark, 2015-09-29 In Satellites in the High Country journalist and adventurer Jason Mark travels beyond the bright lights and certainties of our cities to seek wildness wherever it survives In California's Point Reyes National Seashore a battle over oyster farming and designated wilderness pits former allies against one another as locals wonder whether wilderness should be untouched farmed or something in between In Washington's Cascade Mountains a modern day wild woman and her students learn to tan hides and start fires without matches attempting to connect with a primal past out of reach for the rest of society And in Colorado's High Country dark skies and clear air reveal a breathtaking expanse of stars flawed only by the arc of a satellite passing beauty interrupted by the traffic of a million conversations These expeditions to the edges of civilization's grid show us that although our notions of pristine nature may be shattering the mystery of the wild still exists and in fact it is more crucial than ever
