Touching Photographs Margaret Olin, 2012-05-21 Photography does more than simply represent the world. It acts in the world connecting people to form relationships and shaping relationships to create communities. In this beautiful book Margaret Olin explores photography's ability to touch us through a series of essays that shed new light on photography's role in the world. Olin investigates the publication of photographs in mass media and literature, the hanging of exhibitions, the posting of photocopied photographs of lost loved ones in public spaces and the intense photographic activity of tourists at their destinations. She moves from intimate relationships between viewers and photographs to interactions around larger communities, analyzing how photography affects the way people handle cataclysmic events like 9/11. Along the way she shows us James VanDerZee's Harlem funeral portraits, dusts off Roland Barthes's family album, takes us into Walker Evans and James Agee's photo text Let Us Now Praise Famous Men and logs onto online photo albums. With over one hundred illustrations, Touching Photographs is an insightful contribution to the theory of photography, visual studies and art history.

Crime Fiction in the Age of #MeToo Charlotte Beyer, 2024-11-12 Informed by fourth wave feminism, Crime Fiction in the Age of MeToo presents a compelling and timely reading of crime fiction in the age of MeToo. The book explores five major fourth wave feminist topics: MeToo, rape culture, toxic masculinity, LGBTQ perspectives, and transgender. These topics have been the subject of intense feminist scrutiny and campaigning, and the book demonstrates how this attention is reflected in contemporary crime fiction and its generic and thematic preoccupations. The book opens with a chapter presenting an overview of existing critical perspectives and feminist debates, demonstrating how fourth wave feminist ideas and debates are inspiring innovations in the genre as well as generating fresh ways of reading past and present crime fictions. Providing an overview and context for both fourth wave feminism and the MeToo movement, the chapter establishes the critical and cultural framework for its analysis. The chapter also outlines the book's methodology and approach, detailing the contents of the chapters. Each of the five subsequent chapters uses critical vocabulary and concepts from feminism and the MeToo movement to reassess canonical works and present new readings of contemporary crime fiction, producing compelling analyses of gender and genre. Canonical authors whose works are discussed include Agatha Christie, Raymond Chandler, Josephine Tey, Maj Sjöwall, and Per Wahl, and Val McDermid. Examining selected contemporary novels and short stories, the chapters in Crime Fiction in the Age of MeToo provide fresh readings of both well-known and lesser-known crime authors. The contemporary authors whose work is examined are Lauren Henderson, Susan White, Jennifer Haigh, Alison Leotta, Y.A. Erskine, Heather Fitt, John Harvey, Dorothy Koomson, Pekka Hiltunen, Nekesa Afia, Michael Nava, Stella Duffy, Alex Reeve, V.T.

Davy and Dharma Kelleher Through its critical examination of crime fiction Crime Fiction in the Age of MeToo offers a powerful feminist analysis of the genre which draws links between literature and ongoing urgent social and cultural debates such as the Metoo movement and fourth wave feminism Report of the Special Committee of the Assembly
