on social archaeology The central sections trace the development of society from the hunter gatherer groups of the last Ice Age through the adoption of farming the introduction of metalworking and on to the rise of highly organized societies living on the fringes of the mighty Roman Empire in the 1st century AD Throughout emphasis is given to documenting and explaining changes within these prehistoric communities and to exploring the regional variations found in Britain In this way the wealth of evidence that can be seen in the countryside and in our museums is placed firmly in its proper context It
