The Oral-Style South African Short Story in English Craig MacKenzie,2021-11-15 This study deals with a particular kind of short story in South African English literature a kind of story variously called the fireside tale tall tale skaz narrative or the term used here the oral style story Most famously exemplified in the Oom Schalk Lourens narratives of Herman

Charles Bosman the oral style story has its roots in the hunting tale and camp fire yarn of the nineteenth century and has dozens of exponents in South African literature most of them long forgotten Here this neglect has been addressed A W

Drayson s Tales at the Outspan 1862 provides a point of departure and is followed by discussions of works by William Charles

Scully Percy FitzPatrick Ernest Glanville Perceval Gibbon Francis Carey Slater Pauline Smith and Aegidius Jean Blignaut all of whom used the oral style story genre In the work of Herman Charles Bosman however the South African oral style story comes into its own In his Oom Schalk Lourens figure is invested all of the complexity and double voicedness that was latent and largely dormant in the earlier works Bosman demonstrates his sophistication particularly in his metafictional use of the oral style story The study concludes with a discussion of the use of oral forms in the work of more recent black writers among
