Caravans - Illustrated History - From 1960 Andrew Jenkinson, 2016 This book traces the evolution of the trailer caravan by describing and picturing milestone models and telling the stories of their manufacturers

A Visual History of Caravans Andrew Jenkinson, 2023-02-16 This book is a visual and informative look at the heritage of the touring caravan covering over a 100 years of this now very popular form of leisure The book witnesses the UK being the inventor developer and major producer of touring caravans Images many from the Authors own personal archive shows how caravan interior exterior design has evolved and has been influenced by domestic trends through the decades With nostalgic images the book brings to life this often forgotten yet important aspect of the modern touring caravan Covering imported caravans as well as UK manufactured models shows just how continental tastes differ from UK buyers The touring caravan is a modern and sophisticated leisure vehicle that has evolved since the first commercial built Eccles brand caravan back in 1919 A then rich mans hobby it became more affordable by the 1930 s and this was made possible with more modern production techniques The design of the caravan emerged from a basic box like profile influenced by the 1800 s horse drawn gypsy caravan that became a fashionable form of holiday with the gentry Dr Gordon Stables a retired Naval Officer influenced this idea with his specially built horse drawn caravan The Wanderer now on show at the Broadway Caravan Motorhome Club Site Stables wrote of his adventures and caravanning in a sense had begun The book contains many unpublished and rare images which also features cars from the period too Andrew writes for Practical Motorhome Practical Caravan and Park Home and Holiday Caravan Magazine among others and attends all major related shows

Untold Stories in Organizations Michal Izak, Linda Hitchin, David Anderson, 2014-11-13 The field of organizational storytelling research is productive vibrant and diverse Over three decades we have come to understand how organizations are not only full of stories but also how stories are actively making sustaining and changing organizations This edited collection contributes to this body of work by paying specific attention to stories that are neglected edited out unintentionally omitted or deliberately left silent Despite the fact that such stories are not voiced they have a role to play in organizational analysis The chapters in this volume variously explore how certain realities become excluded or silenced The stories that remain below the audible range in organizations offer researchers an access to study political practices which marginalise certain organisational realities whilst promoting others This volume offers a further contribution by paying heed to silence and the processes of silencing These silences influence the choice of issues on organisational agendas the choice of audience s to which these discourses are addressed and the ways of addressing them In exploring these relatively understudied terrains Untold Stories in Organizations comprises an important contribution to the organizational storytelling space opening paths for new trajectories in storytelling research

Rebirth in the Life and Works of Beatrix Potter Richard Tuerk, 2020-02-24 This work traces the concepts of initiation transformation and rebirth through Beatrix Potter s

personal writings and her children's fiction Her letters and journals reveal attempts to escape from what she called her unloved birthplace and her overbearing parents Potter felt that her life culminated in her forties when she was in effect reborn through marriage as Mrs William Heelis a farmer raising Herdwick sheep and buying land for the National Trust From her first book The Tale of Peter Rabbit through some of the last such as The Fairy Caravan and The Tale of Little Pig Robinson central characters undergo processes of initiation during which they mature toward adulthood The most successful ones move from being helpless children to more mature creatures on their way to independence while others experience no change or even regression
