Strategic Newspaper Management:

Strategic Newspaper Management Conrad C. Fink, 1988 The time is right for bright aggressive newspaper managers to influence and prosper but bleak indeed for those newspapers whose managers lack the requisite knowledge. Using case studies and examples from the business Fink shows why some newspapers change with the times and surge ahead and why some continue to publish to an eroding market base and fail. The difference between success and failure he concludes is in long range planning and in daily operating methodology in simply the professionalism of management at all levels.

Newspapers, a Lost Cause? Patrick Hendriks, 1999 Newspapers A Lost Cause describes the recent history of newspaper firms in the United States and The Netherlands and attempts to assess the chances of survival of the printed newspaper. The changing competitive media landscape and the challenges of today's newspaper organisations including the impact of the Internet on the news industry are described and analysed. The author argues that although the printed newspaper will not be replaced overnight by new competing media the traditional business model of newspapers is being eroded slowly but steadily. A healthy newspaper industry and prospering newspaper firms can only exist if management including journalists and marketeers focus their attention on changing the newspaper organisation and capitalise more intensively on its core assets and skills.

Elliott,2001 The second edition of Percy and Elliott's Strategic Advertising Management continues to deal with advertising from a strategic rather than simply a descriptive standpoint and covers all the main topics on an Advertising Management module. The authors firstly address what advertising is meant to do and then go on to provide an understanding of what is necessary in the development of effective advertising and promotion. The text has been fully updated and revised to include expanded chapter introductions and explicit key concepts. The chapters on Developing a Communication Strategy and Processing the Message have been significantly expanded as has the concluding part Integrating Advertising and Promotion. The authors use numerous examples of successful advertising images and a number of extended case histories to illustrate the application of the various theories discussed. Accompanying the new edition is a companion web site containing for lecturers PowerPoint slides with selected figures from the text and suggested classroom exercises and for students web links and additional questions.
