The Belfast Connection Gérard de Villiers, 1976      The Belfast Connection Milton Bass, 1989-10-01 When Benny Freedman searches for his cousin's murderer in Belfast he finds himself a target      Ireland's Imperial Connections, 1775-1947 Daniel Sanjiv Roberts, Jonathan Jeffrey Wright, 2019-11-05 This edited collection explores the complexities of Irish involvement in empire. Despite complaining regularly of treatment as a colony by England, Ireland nevertheless played a significant part in Britain's imperialism from its formative period in the late eighteenth century through to the decolonizing years of the early twentieth century. Framed by two key events of world history, the American Revolution and Indian Independence, this book examines Irish involvement in empire in several interlinked sections through issues of migration and inhabitation through literary and historical representations of empire through Irish support for imperialism and involvement with resistance movements abroad and through Irish participation in the extensive and intricate networks of empire. Informed by recent historiographical and theoretical perspectives and including several detailed archival investigations, this volume offers an interdisciplinary and evolving view of a burgeoning field of research and will be of interest to scholars of Irish studies, imperial and postcolonial studies, history and literature.

So begins a spiritual awakening, the kindling of a revival fire still burning today. Beginning with Elijah and God's tremendous one-day revival of Israel, Wesley Duewel tells stories of revivals spanning the globe from America to China to Africa, all brought by obedience and heartfelt prayer. He illustrates how God has used revival fire through the centuries to revive the church and reveal the glorious presence of the Holy Spirit.
