The China Factor In Modern Japanese Thought The Case Of Tachibana Shiraki 1881 1945:

The China Factor in Modern Japanese Thought Lincoln Li,1996 The China Factor in Modern Japanese Thought examines the ideas of Tachibana Shiraki 1881 1945 a revisionist within the Japanese Kangaku tradition which focused on incorporating Chinese elements into Japanese culture Tachibana advocated the study of popular culture as the key to understanding contemporary society When militarism was on the ascendant Tachibana was a vocal critic of military solutions Yet his services were sought for by the radical elements of the Japanese military he criticized Through his writings we gain a clearer view of the continuing processes of policy debate in occupied Manchuria Tachibana articulated his faith that the historical destinies of China and Japan were joined and much of his career was engaged in persuading his countrymen that Japan should use its influence to promote social and economic reforms in China and act as a positive force to facilitate the Chinese revolution as the means of cultivating a lasting Japanese influence Japan's Cultural Policy Toward China, 1918-1931 See Heng Teow,1999 Most scholarship on Japan's cultural policy toward modern China reflects the paradigm of cultural imperialism In contrast this study demonstrates that Japan was mindful of Chinese opinion and sought the cooperation of the Chinese government China however actively sought to redirect this policy to serve its national interests and aspirations

The H-Word Perry Anderson,2022-11-29 A fascinating history of the political theory of hegemony Few terms are so widely used in the literature of international relations and political science with so little agreement about their exact meaning as hegemony In the first full historical study of its fortunes as a concept Perry Anderson traces its emergence in Ancient Greece and its rediscovery during the upheavals of 1848 1849 in Germany He then follows its checkered career in revolutionary Russia fascist Italy Cold War America Gaullist France Thatcher's Britain post colonial India feudal Japan Maoist

China eventually arriving at the world of Merkel and May Bush and Obama The result is a surprising and fascinating expedition into global intellectual history ending with reflections on the contemporary political landscape Glorify the Empire Annika A. Culver,2013-02-01 In the 1930s and 40s Japanese rulers in Manchukuo enlisted writers and artists to promote imperial Japan's modernization program Ironically the cultural producers chosen to spread the imperialist message were previously left wing politically In Glorify the Empire Annika A Culver explores how these once anti imperialist intellectuals produced avant garde works celebrating the modernity of a fascist state and reflecting a complicated picture of complicity with and ambivalence toward Japan's utopian project A groundbreaking work Glorify the Empire magnifies the intersection between politics and art in a rarely examined period of Japanese history Constructing Empire Bill Sewell,2019-02-15 Civilians play crucial roles in building empires Constructing Empire shows how Japanese urban planners architects and other civilians contributed often enthusiastically to constructing a modern colonial enclave in northeast China their visions shifting over time Japanese imperialism in Manchuria before 1932 developed in a manner similar to that of other imperialists elsewhere in China but the Japanese thereafter sought to surpass their rivals by transforming the city of Changchun into a grand capital for the puppet state of Manchukuo putting it on the cutting edge of Japanese propaganda Providing a thematic assessment of the evolving nature of planning architecture economy and society in Changchun Bill Sewell examines the key organizations involved in developing Japan's empire there as part of larger efforts to assert its place in the world order This engaging book sheds light on evolving attitudes toward empire and perceptions of national identity among Japanese in Manchuria in the first half of the twentieth century Asian Thought & Society ,1998 China Review International ,1998 Japan and Its Worlds: Marius B. identity in post Qing republican states Within the first half of the twentieth century four regimes the Qing empire under the Manchu royal clan the Republic of China under the Nationalist Party Manchuokuo under the Japanese Kanto Army and the People s Republic of China under the Communist Party each grouped the Manchus into different ethnic and national categories while re positioning Manchuria itself on their political maps in accordance with their differing definitions of statehood During periods of state succession Manchuria was transformed from the Manchu homeland in the Qing dynasty to an East Asian borderland in the early twentieth century before becoming China s territory recovered from the Japanese empire As the transformation of territoriality took place the hard boundaries of the Manchu community were reconfigured its ways of self identification reformed and the space for its identity representations redefined Taking the borderland approach Remote Homeland goes beyond the single country focus and looks instead at regional and cross border perspectives It is a study of China but one that transcends traditional historiographies As such it will be of interest to scholars of modern China Japanese empire and Northeast Asian history as well as to those engaged in the study of borderlands ethnic identity nationalism and imperialism
