published between 1996 and 2013 make a valuable contribution toward this laudable goal. With a wide range of source material from archival and documentary sources to oral histories, Barman pieces together stories of individuals and groups disadvantaged in white settler society because of their gender, race, and/or social class. Working to recognize past actors that have been underrepresented in mainstream histories, Barman's focus is BC on the cusp of contact. The essays in this collection include fascinating though largely forgotten life stories of the frontier that space between contact and settlement where for a brief moment anything seemed possible. This volume featuring over thirty archival photographs and illustrations makes these important and very readable essays accessible to a broader audience for the first time.

Changing Women, Changing History Diana Lynn Pedersen, 1996. Changing Women, Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian women's history. Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices, it is accessible and comprehensive.

American Indian Review, 1999. Aboriginality Alan Twigg, 2005. Following the success of First Invaders (Ronsdale, 2004), Alan Twigg turns his attention to First Nations writers unearthing more than 300 books by more than 170 mostly unheralded British Columbia aboriginal authors. Taking the reader from residential schools to art galleries, this lively and unprecedented panorama of British Columbia includes trailblazer Pauline Johnson, political organizer George Manuel, and Haida carver Bill Reid. Equally important, Aboriginality sheds new light on fascinating lesser-known figures such as Chief William Sepass and Howard Adams, to name only two. Nearly half the author profiles are women, including Marilyn Dumont, Lizette Hall, and Heather Harris. Each author is presented in historical and chronological context along with background material on aboriginal history as well as rare photos, illustrations, and a comprehensive bibliography.

Alan Twigg's Aboriginality is unprecedented and indispensable.

Howard White, publisher, Encyclopedia of British Columbia. Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975. New Faces of the Fur Trade Jo-Anne Fiske, Susan Sleeper-Smith, William Wicken, 1998. New Faces of the Fur Trade is a collection of fifteen essays selected from the Seventh North American Fur Trade Conference held in Halifax, Nova Scotia, in 1995. These articles question the traditional focus of fur trade literature and suggest that there are richer, more diverse narratives to be constructed and new ways to look at the fur trade. Many focus on subjects and themes that either have been formerly overlooked or have been introduced and then neglected. Fur trade studies have been criticized for remaining outside the current mainstream of historiography, in particular for paying scant attention to the rich insights to be found in approaches adopted from the fields of social and gender history. This volume redresses some of those omissions.
