Stories and Collected Poems Stephen Crane, 1997 Collected Poems and Short Stories N. Gold, 2013-02-26 A collection of sonnets free verse and short stories The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti modernist Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision how to connect present day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art's claim to moral spiritual or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena For Jeffers as for no other important modern American poet there has never been a collected poems not even a truly representative selected poems the current Selected Poetry first published in 1938 contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers lifetime or from his posthumous volume Now for the first time all of Jeffers completed poems both published and unpublished are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition The first three volumes of this four volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers published work from 1920 to 1963 The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best known poems Tamar Roan Stallion The Women at Point Sur and Cawdor as well as a recently discovered long poem Home There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction The Collected Poems of Philip Bourke Marston Philip Bourke Marston, 1892 Collected Poems and Stories Fitz-James O'Brian, 1881-01-01 Complete poems George Eliot, 1900 Collected Poems Peter Reading, 1995 The Glass Constellation Arthur Sze, 2021-04-13 This book is an overwhelming feast a treasure and more than enough proof that Sze is a major poet NPR National Book Award winner Arthur Sze is a master poet and The Glass Constellation is a triumph spanning five decades including ten poetry collections and twenty six new poems Sze began his career writing compressed lyrical poems influenced by classical Chinese poetry he later made a leap into powerful polysemous sequences honing a distinct stylistic signature that harnesses luminous particulars and is sharply focused emotionally resonant and structurally complex Fusing elements of Chinese Japanese Native American and various Western experimental traditions employing startling juxtapositions that are always on target deeply informed by concern for our endangered planet and troubled species Arthur Sze presents experience in all its multiplicities in singular book after book This collection is an invitation to immerse in a visionary body of work mapping the evolution of one of our finest American poets Sunday-school Stories on the Golden Texts of the International Lessons of 1889 Edward Everett Hale, 1889 Collected Poems 1897 - 1907 Henry Newbolt, 2016-04-18 Notice This

The Last of the Giant Killers John Christopher Atkinson,1891 Collected Poems Louis MacNeice,2015-04-09 In the decades since his death in 1963 Louis MacNeice s reputation as a poet and indeed amongst poets has grown steadily and there are now several generations of readers in Ireland Britain and beyond for whom he is one of the essential poets of the twentieth century His work has also received increasing attention from academic writers and students For both readers and critics the nature of MacNeice s poetic work as a whole is a matter of importance and the second posthumous Collected Poems entirely re edited by Peter McDonald attempts for the first time to print MacNeice s poetry in groupings corresponding closely to the collections published by Faber between 1935 and 1963 This makes it easier to read the poet in the published forms in which he was read by his contemporaries In choosing to re create the environments of MacNeice s individual volumes of poetry moreover this new Collected reflects the opinion that MacNeice works best in and through those separate volumes particularly so in the brilliant return to form and unique kinds of return on lyric form itself of the last three collections The texts of the poems in the new edition are based on a comparison of all printed versions as revised in the light of the poet's later thoughts This has resulted in a large number of changes It is hoped that the present edition presents MacNeice's poetry more accurately as well as more fully than all previous collections The new Collected Poems also includes as appendices The Last Ditch the short book of poems which MacNeice published with the Cuala Press in 1940 and The Revenant a cycle of songs written for MacNeice's wife the singer Hedli Anderson a selection of uncollected early poems and from Blind Fireworks MacNeice's first published book of verse The Shadow of a Crime Hall Caine, 1892
