

Annie, 88, recalls Stormy Albion heydays

SHE IS one of Skelmersdale's oldest football fans, she is nearly 88 years of age, and she was first to answer an appeal for information about the old Stormy Albion Football Club.

Annie Heaton has treasured her photograph of the Albion team of over 60 years ago because the club holds so many happy memories.

And it will be of particular interest to one of our readers Mr. J. Fyles of Chigwell in Essex who made a recent appeal through the Advertiser for information about the Albion and Stormy Hornets teams of yesterday.

Medals

The Advertiser has down the years reproduced several pictures of old Stormy teams and many families in the Skelmersdale area still have medals handed down from generation to generation.

But Annie's photo, taken just a few years before the side scooped the Skelmersdale and District League Championship, the Agricultural Cup and were runners-up in the Subsidiary Cup competition in the 1927-28 season, is rather special.

Her late husband Walter is among those seen here along with Ned Draper who had a grocer's shop in the village, Jack Woods, Billy Roberts, Charlie Aspinwall, Albie Rowlands, Sammy Williams, Joe Rigby, Bill Gregson, Dick Johnson, Jack Cross and members of the Simpson, Cunliffe and Abram families.

Annie herself is the last of eight members of the Simmons family whose name was synonymous with Skelmersdale United for so long, notably Harry and then Fred who gave such loyal service at White Moss Park.

Ball

She remembers attending a New Year Ball organised by the Stormy Albion and held in the Endowed School when her daughter Alice, now 64 but then a babe in pram, slept right through the proceedings tucked away in a corner of the room.

Annie was one of the original founder members of Skelmersdale United supporters club and says: "I have watched football all my life, football by day and dancing at night."

Now living only a stone's throw away from Smith Street where she was born, Annie still rises at 6.30 each morning and obviously the football and dancing over 88 years has done her no harm at all.

Stormy Heritage:

Stormy Hill's Heritage Nancy Clarke, 2015-12-28 Ann Clarke thought that winning the Kentucky Derby would fulfill her wildest dreams and that of her family. Raised all her life on Stormy Hill, a thoroughbred breeding farm located in the heart of Bluegrass Country, the shy sheltered girl had not reckoned with facing fans or the press avid for every detail of her life and that of her now famous colt Lightning. All she ever wanted was to race her colt but suddenly she is thrown into a maelstrom from which the only answer is to continue on the path to an even bigger dream that could end with the winning of the coveted Triple Crown. Dealing with the press and the public terrifies Ann far more than racing her colt ever could. However soon she has much more to worry about. When a nasty plot cooked up by two jealous jockeys puts one of her own in jeopardy she realizes that love of family can come at too high a price. As she contemplates pulling out of the race Ann wonders if Lightning will ever get the chance to prove his heritage. Stormy Hill's Heritage is the third book of the series that began with Stormy Hill and Stormy Hill's Legacy.

A Family Heritage Edith Fowke, Jay Rahn, LaRena LeBarr Clark, 1994 New folk music and folk song materials in this comprehensive study are particularly important for singers, folk music enthusiasts, ethnomusicologists, comparative and cultural studies scholars, and those interested in Canadian culture. LaRena Clark was a great singer and knew many fine songs. Her wide repertoire covers almost the complete range of types and topics of traditional Anglo-Canadian songs. Comparison with other collections in Canada, the United States, the British Isles, and Australia indicate just how unique and far-reaching it was. Clark's background and her varied ancestry shaped her repertoire. The account of her parents' activities gives a vivid picture of folk life in rural Ontario during the early years of this century. She knew some Canadian songs previously unreported and she wrote songs with a strong Canadian flavour. Musically, Clark's songs are a microcosm of practices characteristic of British folk music throughout the English-speaking world. Particularly noteworthy is her constant reworking of traditional materials, procedures, forms, and individual tunes.
