He foreshadowed the fact that he was going to be broken and poured out; he was going to take humanity's punishment for sin on himself. While they were eating, Jesus took bread and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took a cup and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom." Jesus warned his disciples that he would be with them only a little while longer. He went on to comfort his confused followers, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, I would have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am You know the way to the place where I am going Thomas said to him Lord we don t know where you are going so how can we know the way Jesus answered I am the way and the truth and the life No one comes to the Father except through me If you really know me you will know my Father as well From now on you do know him and have seen him 11 5 point type size The dictionary of English history, ed. by S.
