The Casquet of Literature Charles Gibbon,1879 The Altering Eye Robert Phillip Kolker,2009 The Altering Eye covers a golden age of international cinema from the end of WWII through to the New German Cinema of the 1970s Combining historical political and textual analysis the author develops a pattern of cinematic invention and experimentation from neorealism through the modernist interventions of Jean Luc Godard and Rainer Maria Fassbinder focusing along the way on such major figures as Luis Buñuel Joseph Losey the Brazilian director Glauber Rocha and the work of major Cuban filmmakers Kolker's book has become a much quoted classic in the field of film studies providing essential reading for anybody interested in understanding the history of European and international cinema This new and revised edition includes a substantive new Preface by the author and an updated Bibliography Hamlet and the Vision of Darkness Rhodri Lewis,2020-05-05 An acclaimed new interpretation of Shakespeare's Hamlet Hamlet and the Vision of Darkness is a radical new interpretation of the most famous play in the English language By exploring Shakespeare's engagements with the humanist traditions of early modern England and Europe Rhodri Lewis reveals a Hamlet unseen for centuries an innovative coherent and exhilaratingly

bleak tragedy in which the governing ideologies of Shakespeare's age are scrupulously upended. Recovering a work of far greater magnitude than the tragedy of a young man who cannot make up his mind, Lewis shows that in Hamlet as in King Lear, Shakespeare confronts his audiences with a universe that received ideas are powerless to illuminate and where everyone must find their own way through the dark. The Library of Choice Literature and Encyclopædia of Universal Authorship Ainsworth Rand Spofford, Charles Gibbon, 1890. Through the Eye of a Needle Peter Brown, 2013-09-02. A sweeping intellectual history of the role of wealth in the church in the last days of the Roman Empire. Jesus taught his followers that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter heaven. Yet by the fall of Rome the church was becoming rich beyond measure. Through the Eye of a Needle is a sweeping intellectual and social history of the vexing problem of wealth in Christianity in the waning days of the Roman Empire. Written by the world's foremost scholar of late antiquity, Peter Brown examines the rise of the church through the lens of money and the challenges it posed to an institution that espoused the virtue of poverty and called avarice the root of all evil. Drawing on the writings of major Christian thinkers such as Augustine, Ambrose, and Jerome, Brown examines the controversies and changing attitudes toward money caused by the influx of new wealth into church coffers and describes the spectacular acts of divestment by rich donors and their growing influence in an empire beset with crisis. He shows how the use of wealth for the care of the poor competed with older forms of philanthropy deeply rooted in the Roman world and sheds light on the ordinary people who gave away their money in hopes of treasure in heaven. Through the Eye of a Needle challenges the widely held notion that Christianity's growing wealth sapped Rome of its ability to resist the barbarian invasions and offers a fresh perspective on the social history of the church in late antiquity. The Library of Choice Literature Ainsworth Rand Spofford, Charles Gibbon, 1882. The Library of Choice Literature and Encyclopedia of Universal Authorship Ainsworth Rand Spofford, 1894.
