A First Look at Racism Pat Thomas,2003 MERE CHRISTIAN, MERE SCIENTIST Ira Edwards,2024-10-16 Christianity is big

Christianity is a great culture That is good as non Christian Tom Holland documents in his book Dominion but that is Grand Christianity not mere Jesus told his disciples that they would not be like the world They would be servants They would be like children To comply with that this book is the writing of one mere Christian Similarly science is big Science is a great culture That is good but Grand Science lacks an anchor in morality Science can be misused to support great evils That has happened and it will happen This book has only a beginning of the study of that problem It may be obvious that the term mere comes from C S Lewis author of Mere Christianity This book does not disagree with Lewis but it is a very different book using mere in a more humble way

Counseling Children and Adolescents Through Grief and Loss Jody J. Fiorini,Jodi Ann Mullen,2006 Provides developmentally appropriate interventions for counselling children and adolescents who have experienced a wide range of grief and loss including secondary and intangible losses such as moving or divorce It provides a method for assessing individual needs and offers guidelines for selecting appropriate counselling strategies

So You Want to Talk About Race Ijeoma Oluo,2018-01-16 In this New York Times bestseller Ijeoma Oluo offers a hard hitting but user friendly examination of race in America Widespread reporting on aspects of white supremacy from police brutality to the mass incarceration of African Americans have made it impossible to ignore the issue of race Still it is a difficult subject to talk about How do you tell your roommate her jokes are racist Why did your sister in law take umbrage when you asked to touch her hair and how do you make it right How do you explain white privilege to your white privileged friend In So You Want to Talk About Race Ijeoma Oluo guides readers of all races through subjects ranging from intersectionality and affirmative action to model minorities in an attempt to make the seemingly impossible possible honest conversations about race and racism and how they infect almost every aspect of American life Oluo gives us both white people and people of color that language to engage in clear constructive and confident dialogue with each other about how to deal with racial prejudices and biases National Book Review Generous and empathetic yet usefully blunt it s for anyone who wants to be smarter and more empathetic about matters of race and engage in more productive anti racist action Salon

Required Reading The School Librarian ,2003 Gothic Images of Race in Nineteenth-Century England Howard L. Malchow,1996 In pursuing the sources for late eighteenth and nineteenth century demonization of racial and cultural difference this book moves back and forth between the imagined world of literature and the real world of historical experience between fictional romance and what has been called the parallel fictions of the human sciences of anthropology and biology The author argues that the gothic genre and its various permutations offered a language that could be appropriated consciously or not by racists in a powerful and obsessively reiterated evocation of terror disgust and alienation But he shows that the gothic itself also evolved in the context of the brutal progress of European nationalism and imperialism and absorbed much from them This book explores both the gothicization of race and the racialization of the gothic as inseparable processes Racism: The Skin I'm In Pat Thomas,2021-08-12 This book spells out in simple terms why people may feel threatened by racial differences what it feels like to be bullied because your skin is a different colour and why it hurts everyone to judge people by their skin or culture It will encourage positive acceptance and openness about differences and suggest ways for children to celebrate their own cultural heritage without belittling someone else s Notes for parents and teachers at the back of the book provide valuable advice for how to share this book with your child or class Suitable for Key Stage 1 ages 5 7 occasional prompts throughout the text give a chance to discuss the issue being raised Written by trained psychotherapist journalist and parent and illustrated by an experienced children s book artist this is a part of an acclaimed and successful long running series of picture book non fiction books for Early Years Books in the series give advice and promote interaction between children parents and teachers on a wide variety of personal social and emotional issues They are excellent tools for teachers to use during classroom discussions This picture led book is a good introduction to the issue of racism what it means to be the victim or the perpetrator how subtle racism can be and how unfair it is to judge someone by the colour of their skin A useful introduction to the topic particularly for classroom use Evening Echo The book explores the issue of racism and deals with children s concerns in a sensitive and reassuring way Child Education
