Peterson, 2006 Sir John Betjeman 1906 1984 Poet Laureate was probably the most widely read English poet of the twentieth century Because of his frequent appearances on radio and television and his fervent devotion to the preservation of England's architectural heritage his face and voice became familiar to millions Few other poets of any century have had such a powerful influence on their contemporaries This bibliography lists and describes all of his known writings including his own books ephemera contributions to periodicals and to books by others lectures and radio and television programmes Other categories such as editorships music settings and dramatic adaptations of his poems recordings and interviews are also included as well as a section devoted to writings about him Manuscripts and drafts of all his works are described in detail This enormous body of material is thoroughly indexed cross referenced and in most cases annotated Now at last the activities of this remarkable man both a poet and a cultural phenomenon can be seen in their full breadth and complexity Haunted Spaces in Twenty-First Century British Nature Writing Anneke Lubkowitz, 2020-06-08 This study investigates the figure of haunting in the New Nature Writing It begins with a historical survey of nature writing and traces how it came to represent an ideal of natural space as empty of human history and social conflict Building on a theoretical framework which combines insights from ecocriticism and spatial theory the author explores the spatial dimensions of haunting and hauntology and shows how 21st century writers draw on a Gothic repertoire of seemingly supernatural occurrences and spectral imagery to portray natural space as disturbed uncanny and socially contested Iain Sinclair and Robert Macfarlane are revealed to apply psychogeography's interest in hidden histories and haunted places to spaces associated with wilderness and the countryside Kathleen Jamie's allusions to the Gothic are put in relation to her feminist re-writing of the outdoors and John Burnside's use of haunting is shown to dismantle fictions of the far north This book provides not only a discussion of a wide range of factual and fictional narratives of the present but also an analysis of the intertextual dialogue with the Romantic tradition which enfolds in these texts The Booklover's Answer, 1964 National Union Catalog, 1980 TSWNTIETH CENTURY AUTHORS STANLEY J. KUNITZ, 1955 In Solitude, for Company Wystan Hugh Auden, 1995 The third volume of Auden Studeis presents Auden in maturity and includes a large amount of previously unpublished prose by him The book concentrates on the relatively unexplored area of Auden's post 1940 writings and the letters essay and lectures printed here demonstrate the Goethean scope of his intellect which ranged easily from psychoanalysis to theology archaeology to politics In Solitude for Company contains two hitherto unpublished and little known lectures The first of these introduced by Nicholas Jenkins is on the theme of vocation delivered during the troubled war years when Auden was examining his own vocation The second lecture was given near the end of the poet's life on the subject of the value of the work of Sigmund Freud Katherine Bucknell precedes this with the first full length examination of Auden's intensely ambivalent relation to Freud Auden's correspondence with his close friends James and Tania Stern reveals much new and important biographical information and Edward Mendelson's further supplement to the Auden Bibliography provides an extensive listing of all published letters by Auden In addition distinguished literary critics including David Bromwich Lawrence Lipking Edna Longley and Michael Wood together with the nonagenarian communist Edward Upward contribute to a symposium on one of this century's most famous poems In Praise of Limestone Sir John Betjeman Duncan Andrews, Wellesley College Library, 1976 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1992 Collecting Modern First Editions Joseph Connolly, 1977 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress.
