Skipping Without Ropes:

Skipping Without Ropes Jack Mapanje, 1998 Because he was a radical poet Jack Mapanje was imprisoned without trial or charge by the dictator Hastings Banda of Malawi for nearly four years Skipping without Ropes is his third and most varied collection with poems on his incarceration and release from prison his exile and return to Africa reconciliation with torturers the role of the African writer and the continuing liberation struggle in other countries While often deadly serious Mapanje's poems are given a skip and a lift by the generosity of spirit and irrepressible humour which helped sustain him through his prison ordeal Cambridge IGCSE® Literature in English Workbook Russell Carey, 2015-03-26 Provides full support for students and teachers of the Cambridge IGCSE Literature in English syllabus In combination with the Cambridge IGCSE Literature in English Coursebook this Workbook will enable students to prepare and practise giving them confidence in the classroom and a wider enjoyment of literature This Workbook gives students a wide range of activities to practise interrogating texts asking questions when analysing extracts and additional support for essay writing It includes a variety of learning focused activities to build students confidence international content and a wide range of text extracts from around the world and extra support for students particularly in areas which may require additional support such as poetry drama and unseen extracts Narrating the Self and Nation in Kenyan Autobiographical Writings Samuel Ndogo, 2016 Author Samuel Ndogo offers an understanding of the autobiographical genre in contemporary Kenyan literature He draws attention to life writing as a form of cultural re imagination in post colonial Africa Taking into consideration contradictions and paradoxes of referentiality in life writing this book examines the autobiographies of Jaramogi Oginga Odinga Ngugi wa Thiong'o Wangari Maathai and Bethwell Ogot The analysis dwells on self representations in correlation with imaginations of the Kenyan nation in these works Thus the study gives a critical account into the modern memoir the forms and styles it takes the ways in which these authors tend to understand and present their lives Series Contributions to African Research Beitr ge zur Afrikaforschung Vol 63 Subject African Studies Literary Criticism With the Witnesses Dale Tracy, 2017-06-09 How poetry's compassion revises trauma theory Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide African Political Thought Stephen Chan, 2021-11-25 African liberation is often seen in terms of heroism but seldom in terms of thought Even Sartre in his preface to Frantz Fanon's seminal The Wretched of the Earth wrote of the native with his coiled muscles about to explode into rebellion The African and the black person are denied the condition of philosophy apparently driven only by frustration and anger Stephen Chan's new book charts the long history of African political thought from the years of North American slavery through the development of modern African nationalism and the difficulties of governing new states to Africa's political philosophy today taking on the world as an equal He dwells at length on major figures from Marcus Garvey and Kwame Nkrumah's postcolonial generation to Biko Mandela and Ellen Johnson Sirleaf He shows their leadership to be inseparable from their ideas and from those of literary giants including Fanon W E B Du Bois and Ng g wa Thiong o This is no hagiography Chan critically examines his thinkers who also include Mugabe and Mobutu and expresses concern for the future of Pan Africanism But his fascinating account reveals a thoughtful continent that has made complex significant contributions to the world's intellectual commons yet continues to seek freedom

The Columbia Guide to Central African Literature in English Since 1945 Adrian A. Roscoe, 2008 Columbia's guides to postwar African literature paint a unique portrait of the continent's rich and diverse literary traditions This volume examines the rapid rise and growth of modern literature in the three postcolonial nations of Zimbabwe Malawi and Zambia It tracks the multiple political and economic pressures that have shaped Central African writing since the end of World War II and reveals its authors' heroic efforts to keep their literary traditions alive in the face of extreme poverty and AIDS Adrian Roscoe begins with a list of key political events Since writers were composing within both colonial and postcolonial contexts he pays particular attention to the nature of British colonialism especially theories regarding its provenance and motivation Roscoe discusses such historical figures as David Livingstone Cecil Rhodes and Sir Harry Johnston as well as modern power players including Robert Mugabe Kenneth Kaunda and Kamuzu Banda He also addresses efforts to create a literary historical record from an African perspective an account that challenges white historiographies in which the colonized was neither agent nor informer A comprehensive alphabetical guide profiles both established and emerging authors and further illustrates issues raised in the introduction Roscoe then concludes with a detailed bibliography recommending additional reading and sources At the close of World War II the people of Central Africa found themselves mired in imperial fatigue and broken promises of freedom This fueled a desire for liberation and a major surge in literary production and in this illuminating guide Roscoe details the campaigns for social justice and political integrity for education and economic empowerment and for gender equity participatory democracy rural development and environmental care that characterized this exciting period of development
