

An illustration of a person from the waist up, wearing a dark blue long-sleeved shirt, holding up several papers and documents. The person's arms are raised, and they are looking upwards. The background is a warm, orange-brown gradient. Numerous papers and documents are floating around the person, some held in their hands and others scattered in the air. One document at the top left has the text 'TO DO LIST' visible. The overall style is artistic and expressive, with a focus on the act of letting things go or managing information.

Slipping Through The Cracks:

Black Enterprise ,1986-11 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Consent in the Childhood Classroom Clio Stearns,2022-02-21 Consent in the Childhood Classroom challenges typical premises of social and emotional learning self regulation and putative misbehavior by centering the theme of consent in the experiences of young children and their teachers Early childhood and elementary teachers often face disruptions and acts of dissent from young students without a helpful conceptual framework for understanding how these expressions may stem from social injustices developmental nuances and problematic assumptions about the nature of children s agency By posing complex yet relatable questions about the presumptions of authority positivity and routines in learning environments and drawing on classroom anecdotes along with interviews with children and teachers this book offers an accessible approach to cultivating expansive relationships in the classroom a vision for a richer and more mutual education and a clearer understanding of what school means from the perspective of the child

Black Men in the Academy Brian L. McGowan,Robert T. Palmer,J. Luke Wood,David F. Hibbler, Jr.,2016-01-26 Using an anti deficit approach Black Men in the Academy explores narratives of resiliency success and achievement for black men in the academy This book is an important text for scholars interested in promoting success in education for underrepresented minorities Dynamic Management of Growing Firms Lorraine Uhlaner,John Psarouthakis,2025-12-10 This innovative volume offers a step by step planning strategy and a set of self assessment tools for CEOs and managers of established firms to help them refocus away from crisis management and toward more effective planned profitable growth in this age of global competition Derived from open systems theory empirical research and practical experience the Dynamic Systems Planning Model the core of the book aids strategists and scholars in identifying and analyzing a comprehensive set of core competencies of the organization to assure growth and profitability providing a much broader perspective than the marketing and financial focus of strategy in the 1980s The Dynamic Systems Planning Model is a tool to help the entrepreneur simplify the often chaotic changes that small and mid sized companies experience as they grow The model identifies seven enduring system issues that must be strategically operationally and dynamically managed on an ongoing basis as the company and its environment change over time The authors link the strategic significance of the seven elements of the model market strategy resource acquisition resource allocation work flow human relations public relations and technical mastery to the creation of a stronger company Many of the research results presented here come from one of the largest and most comprehensive studies ever done on strategy and growth in small to mid sized firms All concepts are illustrated with a case history of J P Industries a former Fortune 500 company It will be a valuable book for practitioners owners CEOs presidents board members managers of small and medium sized firms and researchers and students focusing on entrepreneurship organization theory and
