

An aerial photograph of a waterfront property. In the foreground, a wooden dock extends into a body of water, with two white motorboats moored at it. To the left of the dock, there are two Tudor-style houses with half-timbered exteriors and red-tiled roofs. The house on the left is smaller and has a gabled roof, while the one on the right is larger and has a more complex roofline. Behind the houses, there is a grassy area with several bare trees. In the background, a residential neighborhood with larger houses and more trees is visible under a clear sky.
