Architectural Possibilities in the Work of Eisenman Michael Jasper, 2022-11-11 This book examines the central decades of Peter Eisenman's work through a formal and thematic analysis of key architectural projects and writings revealing underlying characteristics and arguing for their productive continuity and transformative role. The book explores Eisenman's approach to architectural form generation and thinking. It does this through a thematic and formal analysis of projects and writings from the mid 1970s to the mid 1990s. Following an introductory chapter addressing the theme of potentialities, the book is organised in two parts. The first part focuses on key period writings of Eisenman framing the close reading around a practice of resistance, the architect's approach to history as analysis and the transformative conceptualisation of time. In the second part, the book undertakes an analysis of select projects from the 1980s and 1990s. Three formal preoccupations and conceptual orientations—ground manipulations, figuration and spatial events—organise this part of the book. Previously unpublished material from the Peter Eisenman fonds, Canadian Centre for Architecture, Montréal, provides primary source material. A concluding chapter addresses Eisenman's teaching, its relation to his larger project and possible legacies for educators, practitioners, scholars and theorists.

The French Revolution and What Went Wrong Stephen Clarke, 2018-05-03 An entertaining and eye-opening look at the French Revolution by Stephen Clarke, author of 1000 Years of Annoying the French and A Year in the Merde. The French Revolution and What Went Wrong looks back at the French Revolution and how it's surrounded in a myth. In 1789, almost no one in France wanted to oust the king, let alone guillotine him. But things quickly escalated until there was no turning back. The French Revolution and What Went Wrong looks at what went wrong and why France would be better off if they had kept their monarchy.

Becoming China's Bitch Peter D. Kiernan, 2012-02-14 In Becoming China's Bitch, Peter D. Kiernan presents an unflinching manifesto in which he explores five factors that keep us frozen. He then uncovers the ten challenges that pose the greatest threat to our future. Presented from a fresh yet informative perspective, these ten impending catastrophes include our semiconscious dependency on China, our lack of a coordinated intelligence effort, our downward spiraling health care and education systems, our missing in action energy policy, and the continually expanding problem of illegal immigration. In a logical, personal and persuasive voice, Kiernan then offers radical yet practical solutions that every American must acknowledge and act upon before it's too late.

Theorizing a New Agenda for Architecture: Kate Nesbitt, 1996-03 Theorizing a New Agenda for Architecture: An Anthology of Architectural Theory collects in a single volume the most significant essays on architectural theory of the last thirty years. A dynamic period of reexamination of the discipline, the postmodern era produced widely divergent and radical viewpoints on issues of making meaning, history and the city. Among the paradigms presented are architectural postmodernism, phenomenology, semiotics, poststructuralism, deconstruction and feminism By gathering these influential articles from a vast array of books and journals into a comprehensive anthology Kate Nesbitt has created a resource of great value Indispensable to professors and students of architecture and architectural theory Theorizing a New Agenda also serves practitioners and the general public as Nesbitt provides an overview a thematic structure and a critical introduction to each essay The list of authors in Theorizing a New Agenda reads like a Who's Who of contemporary architectural thought Tadao Ando Giulio Carlo Argan Alan Colquhoun Jacques Derrida Peter Eisenman Marco Frascari Kenneth Frampton Diane Ghirardo Vittorio Gregotti Karsten Harries Rem Koolhaas Christian Norberg Schulz Aldo Rossi Colin Rowe Thomas Schumacher Ignasi de Sol Morales Rubi Bernard Tschumi Robert Venturi and Denise Scott Brown and Anthony Vidler A bibliography and notes on all the contributors are also included

Diseases of the Head Matt Rosen, 2020 Diseases of the Head is an anthology of essays from contemporary philosophers artists and writers working at the crossroads of speculative philosophy and speculative horror At once a compendium of multivocal endeavors a breviary of supposedly illicit ponderings and a travelogue of philosophical exploration this collection centers itself on the place at which philosophy and horror meet Employing rigorous analysis incisive experimentation and novel invention this anthology asks about the use that speculation can make of horror and horror of speculation about whether philosophy is fictional or fiction philosophical and about the relationship between horror the exigencies of our world and time and the future developments that may await us in philosophy itself From philosophers working on horrific themes to horror writers influenced by heresies in the wake of post Kantianism to artists engaged in projects that address monstrosity and alienation Diseases of the Head aims at nothing less than a speculative coup d'état Refusing both total negation and absolute affirmation refusing to deny everything or account for everything refusing the posture of critique and the posture of all encompassing unification this collection of essays aims at exposition and construction analysis and creation it desires to fight for some thing but not everything and not nothing And it desires most of all to speak from the position of its own insufficiency its own partiality its own under determinacy which is always indicative of the practice of thinking of speculation Considering themes of anonymity otherness and alterity the gothic extinction and the world without us the end times the apocalypse the ancient and the world before us and the uncanny or unheimlich among other motifs this anthology seeks to articulate the cutting edge which can be found at the intersection of speculative philosophy and speculative horror
