Research Council (U.S.). Panel on Testing of Handicapped People, Assembly of Behavioral and Social Sciences (U.S.). Panel on Testing of Handicapped People, 1982 Current testing and selection practices in schools and the workplace are examined to describe the experiences of handicapped people and to determine the extent to which testing is a barrier to the full participation of handicapped people in society The Panel on Testing of Handicapped People dealt in depth with the legal and psychometric issues relating to the testing of people with handicapping conditions and to the testing requirements of the regulations implementing Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 They concluded that current psychometric theory and practice do not fully comply with the regulations as currently drafted recommending necessary research studies of test validity validation procedures test modifications and investigation into the role of test scores in decision making Chapters in this report discuss 1 ability testing and handicapped people 2 admissions testing for post secondary education 3 testing for job selection 4 the legal context of Section 504 5 psychometric requirements of the regulations 6 recommended policies and procedures and 7 recommended research A review of literature and summary proceedings of an open meeting of the Panel 1980 are appended PN Test Validity Howard Wainer, Henry I. Braun, 2013-07-04 Technological and theoretical changes over the past decade have altered the way we think about test validity This book addresses the present and future concerns raised by these developments Topics discussed include the validity of computerized testing the validity of testing for specialized populations e g minorities the handicapped and new analytic tools to study and measure validity Assessment in Higher Education Samuel J. Messick, 2013-12-16 Assessment in Higher Education brings together in one place most of the major issues confronting higher education in the 1990s These include enhancing student access development and success in higher education transforming admissions testing to meet expanding educational needs resolving the politics of accountability by assessing quality outcomes of higher education assuring fair assessment responsive to human diversity and facing the technological future of higher education An integrative thread that weaves through all of these issues is the concept of equity especially as it bears on social justice in education and on fairness in assessment Another integrative thread is the role of computer and multimedia technology not only in improving the efficiency and power of all the functions of higher education assessment but also in revolutionizing the delivery of higher education itself Welfare in Review, 1970 Testing handicapped people - the validity issue Warren W.
