MOVING MIRROR OF THEORY: RECALIBRATING LITERARY INTERPRETATION FROM FORMALISM TO HISTORY Dr. HITESH B JOSHI, 2025-10-13 The Moving Mirror of Theory Recalibrating Literary Interpretation from Formalism to History An Evolving Theoretical Lens is neither a passive chronicle nor a nostalgic survey it is an audacious re inscription of the critical enterprise itself The work traces with deliberate precision the tectonic shifts by which literary interpretation has been wrested from the sanctified autonomy of the text and thrust into the volatile matrices of history ideology and power Commencing in the crystalline bastions of Formalism and New Criticism where the literary artifact was venerated as a self enclosed aesthetic mechanism the book charts the subsequent insurgencies that refused such hermetic purity Structuralism Post Structuralism Marxist hermeneutics Feminist insurgencies Postcolonial re readings and the restless energies of New Historicism are not merely enumerated but interrogated as interlocking vectors in a ceaseless dialectic of meaning making Here theory is figured as a moving mirror never static never innocent always refracting the literary text through the inflections of its own historical moment Recalibration becomes both a method and a necessity an ongoing attunement of critical lenses to the shifting constellations of culture politics and epistemology The result is a book that does not simply instruct how to read it compels the reader to reimagine what reading can signify in a world where literature is at once artifact agent and archive of human becoming For scholars students and reflective practitioners of criticism it offers not closure but an invitation to inhabit with rigor and imagination the evolving horizons of interpretation itself A Cultural History of Sound, Memory, and the Senses Joy Damousi, Paula Hamilton, 2016-12-08 The past 20 years have witnessed a turn towards the sensuous particularly the aural as a viable space for critical exploration in History and other Humanities disciplines This has been informed by a heightened awareness of the role that the senses play in shaping modern identity and understanding of place and increasingly how the senses are central to the memory of past experiences and their representation The result has been a broadening of our historical imagination which has previously taken the visual for granted and ignored the other senses Considering how crucial the auditory aspect of life has been a shift from seeing to hearing past societies offers a further perspective for examining the complexity of historical events and experiences Historians in many fields have begun to listen to the past developing new arguments about the history and the memory of sensory experience This volume builds on scholarship produced over the last twenty years and explores these dimensions by coupling the history of sound and the senses in distinctive ways through a study of the sound of violence the sound of voice mediated by technologies and the expression of memory through the senses Though sound is the most developed field in the study of the sensorium many argue that each of the senses should not be studied in isolation from each other and for this reason the final section incorporates material which emphasizes the sense as relational The Book, 1983 Text and Culture Daniel Cottom, 1989 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again
