at length it chanced that I came to the fairest valley in the world wherein were trees of equal growth and a river ran through the valley and a path was by the side of the river And I followed the path until mid day and continued my journey along the remainder of the valley until the evening and at the extremity of a plain I came to a large and lustrous Castle at the foot of which was a torrent And I approached the Castle and there I beheld two youths with yellow curling hair each with a frontlet of gold upon his head and clad in a garment of yellow satin and they had gold clasps upon their insteps In the hand of each of them was an ivory bow strung with the sinews of the stag and their arrows had shafts of the bone of the whale and were winged with peacock s feathers the shafts also had golden heads And they had daggers with blades of gold and with hilts of the bone of the whale And they were shooting their daggers And a little way from them I saw a man in the prime of life with his beard newly shorn clad in a robe and a mantle of yellow satin and round the top of his mantle was a band of gold lace On his feet were shoes of variegated leather fastened by two bosses of gold When I saw him I went towards him and saluted him and such was his courtesy that he no sooner received my greeting than he returned it And he went with me towards the Castle Now there were no dwellers in the Castle except those who were in one hall And there I saw four and twenty damsels embroidering satin at a window And this I tell thee Kai that the least fair of them was fairer than the fairest maid thou hast ever beheld in the Island of Britain and the least lovely of them was more lovely than Gwenhwyvar the wife of Arthur when she has appeared loveliest at the Offering on the day of the Nativity or at the feast of Easter They rose up at my coming and six of them took my horse and divested me of my armour and six others took my arms and washed them in a vessel until they were perfectly bright And the third six spread cloths upon the tables and prepared meat And the fourth six took off my soiled garments and placed others upon me namely an under vest and a doublet of fine linen and a robe and a surcoat and a mantle of yellow satin with a broad gold band upon the mantle And they placed cushions both beneath and around me with coverings of red linen and I sat down Now the six maidens who had taken my horse unharnessed him as well as if they had been the best squires in the Island of Britain Then behold they brought bowls of silver wherein was water to wash and towels of linen some green and some white and I washed And in a little while the man sat down to the table And I sat next to him and below me sat all the maidens except those who waited on us And the table was of silver and the cloths upon the table were of linen and no vessel was served upon the table that was not either of gold or of silver or of buffalo horn And our meat was brought to us And verily Kai I saw there every sort of meat and every sort of liquor that I have ever seen elsewhere but the meat and the liquor were better served there than I have ever seen them in any other place

 Edwards, Charlotte Guest, 2014-10-20 The complete collection of eleven prose stories collated from medieval Welsh manuscripts Drawing on pre Christian Celtic mythology with some of the themes having been dated back to the early Iron Age this marvelous compendium of tales contains some of the oldest European folklore in existence The source material the Red Book of Hergest or Llyfr Goch Hergest first appeared around 1382 as a complete document although older manuscript fragments have been found The first volume of the Mabinogion focuses on three Welsh versions of the Arthurian Tales called the Three Romances Y Tair Rhamant It contains much material not found in any other version of the Arthurian legend and scholars hold that this was the original legend upon which all others were based The second volume contains a number of stories from Welsh legend dating from well before medieval times and includes the tales of Kilhwch and Olwen from which other Arthurian traditions were drawn Also included is the Dream of Maxen Wledig which tells of the Roman Emperor Magnus Maximus who as a commander in Roman occupied Britain assembled a Celtic army and assumed the title of Emperor of the Western Roman Empire The third volume focuses on the character of Pryderi fab Pwyll king of Dyfed and contains the Four Branches of the Mabinogi which tell of his parents birth marriage conflict adventures and ultimate tragedy This volume contains the oldest works of Welsh mythology This new edition has been completely reset but contains all the wonderful original artwork which appeared in the famous 1902 edition assembled by Welsh scholar Owen Edwards From the introduction Some of the Mabinogion has been reconstructed in Norman and Crusading times but they contain reminiscences of a more distant period often but half understood by the later story teller Among these are The Dream of Rhonabwy The Lady of the Fountain and Peredur the son of Evrawc the three which happen to come first in the Red Book These are Christian but with distant glimpses of Celtic heathenism The adventures are all grouped around Arthur and his knights and a kind of connection is given to the three tales by the presence of Owen and his mysterious ravens Others especially the four Mabinogion properly so called and the Tale of Lludd and Llevelys are far older they are older than Christianity and older than Arthur they are all in a perfectly pagan atmosphere neither the introduction of Christianity nor the growth of chivalry having affected them to any extent CONTENTS VOLUME I Introduction The Lady of the Fountain Peredur the Son of Evrawc The Dream of Rhonabwy VOLUME II Introduction Geraint the Son of Erbin Kilhwch and Olwen or the Twrch Trwyth The Dream

The retelling of the epic Welsh myth that is certainly among the top 5 fantasy series of the twentieth century. The Mabinogion is to Welsh mythology what the tales of Zeus, Hera, and Apollo are to Greek myth; these tales constitute a powerful work of the imagination ranking with Tolkien's Lord of the Rings novels and T. H. White's The Once and Future King. Evangeline Walton's compelling rendition of these classic thrilling stories of magic, betrayal, lost love, and bitter retribution includes the encounter between Prince Pwyll and Arawn, the God of Death, which Pwyll survives by agreeing to kill the one man that Death cannot fell, and the tale of Bran the Blessed and his family's epic struggle for the throne. Walton's vivid retelling introduces an ancient world of gods and monsters, heroes, kings, and quests, making accessible one of the greatest fantasy sagas of all time.
