Akratic Compatibilism and All Too Human Psychology J. Christopher Maloney, 2023-04-24 Do we have free will How could we have the psychological leeway to choose and act otherwise than we do The sum of history and the laws of science including psychology deterministically imply all events including each of our actions Is nature's iron determination of deliberation compatible with the will's freedom The philosophers who answer affirmatively both classical and current assume that either the ultimate scientific laws or the grand historical record or both are merely contingent By proceeding to infer the contingency of lawfully determined actions these compatibilists would secure the leeway presumably requisite for the will's liberty Akratic Compatibilism and All Too Human Psychology Almost Enough Is Free Will Enough argues however that they may be dead wrong about the modality of nature's laws and history's plasticity Might the laws be necessary and history absolutely fixed Nevertheless J. Christopher Maloney posits we would yet be free For psychology ordains volitional conflict sometimes we akratically will to be able to act otherwise than we irresistibly do Being akratic by nature we asymptotically resist even a necessitating psychology's governance That Sisyphean resistance against the laws of cognition almost achieves the will's liberating leeway Nevertheless almost free is free enough for deliberators as weak-willed as we A Century of

James Frazer's The Golden Bough Stephanie Lynn Budin, Caroline J. Tully, 2024-11-21 This multidisciplinary volume examines the ongoing effects of James G. Frazer's The Golden Bough in modern Humanities and its wide-ranging influence across studies of ancient religions literature historiography and reception studies The book begins by exploring the life and times of Frazer himself and the writing of The Golden Bough in its cultural milieu It then goes on to cover a wide range of topics including ancient Near Eastern religion and culture Minoan religion and in particular the origins of notions of Minoan matriarchy Frazer's influence on the study of Graeco-Roman religion and magic Frazer's influence on modern Pagan religions and the effects of Frazer's works in modern culture and scholarship generally Chapters examine how modern academia and beyond continues to be influenced by the otherwise discredited theories in The Golden Bough ideas such as Sacred Marriage and the incessant Fertility of Everything The book demonstrates how scholarship within the Humanities as well as practitioners of alternative religions and the common public remain under the thrall of Frazer over one hundred years since the publication of the abridged edition of The Golden Bough and what we must do to shake off that influence A Century of

Manipulative Activities and Games in the Mathematics Classroom Lee E. Vochko, 1979

This collection of activities is organized into two sections. The first entitled Manipulatives suggests materials which may be used to introduce or reinforce mathematical concepts such as basic arithmetic operations place value long division percents multiples and common denominators informal geometry including area perimeter and volume and pattern recognition and other problem solving strategies. The second section Games reflects the author's conviction that games have a contribution to make in the mathematics classroom particularly in the areas of basic skills practice applications and logic and strategy development. Like the first section it is organized by grade level. The majority of activities are appropriate for the primary and elementary levels although many include variations suitable for higher grade levels. None of the activities described requires the purchase of commercial materials and both sections are prefaced with articles providing a basic rationale for the use of manipulatives and games which may prove helpful when dealing with skeptical parents or administrators.
